

Kappa Delta Pi

GREENVILLE — Seventy-four new members have been inducted into East Carolina University's Eta Chi chapter of Kappa Delta Pi honor society in education.

The initiation ceremony, held at the Ramada Inn here featured an address, "Teaching at the Crossroads," by Dr. Charles Coble of the ECU Department of Science Education.

Sandra Taylor Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Teneal Taylor, Route 3, Edenton, is among the members.

More than 150 persons were present.

Kappa Delta Pi recognizes and rewards academic achievement in education studies and contributions to the field of education.

Faculty sponsor for the ECU chapter is Dr. William B. Martin of the ECU School of Education faculty.

Letter To Editor

To the Editor:

I feel compelled to speak up in behalf of the Board of Directors Cape Colony Association.

All of us became apart of this community by choice, with this choice came many unforeseen and, unknown problems. First off, the developers dissolved and we inherited roads which were sub-standard and other problems being discovered daily to be handled by the Board of Directors in which we either elected or like on so many other community problems, we chose not to get involved. During the last annual meeting the number of members accepting nominations for seats becoming vacant were no more than the number required to fill vacancies. If the board of directors is an easy or prestigious position, why is it no one wants to serve on the board. The board of directors meet every first Friday of each month at 8 P.M. in the Lodge Building (in addition to special called meetings) to make decisions affecting all of us. These meetings are open to all property owners renters, and guest at present attendance by interested parties at these meetings range from 0-6 by other than board members yet when a decision is made that does not suit us absentee's we tend to hold little back yard or block get to-gethers with the person talking most becoming the lawyer with more knowledge than any law school could ever offer. We analyze the problem then we each go our own way telling the tale however it best meets our fantasy. Each person told then absorbs all these facts as told and, gets his legal advice from his choice backyard lawyer, and decides to slander the board members (which are not professional politicians, or lawyers but just dedicated individuals) telling someone on the next block of the decision and on and on. With this over the big decision, and the F. Lee Bailey of the Groups decides the best thing to do is rebel by not paying our dues and assessments therefore becoming parasites. Leaving all the existing problems to worsen and then we can really blame the board. The point I am trying to get across is "Don't you think it is time we all started getting involved in the community by providing inputs at board meetings and hear the facts as they are presented. Some of these decisions are tough. If you still do not desire to become involved, I ask you to support the board we allowed to get elected by either voting or not voting. Secondly I ask you to consider paying your dues and assessments relieving the board of necessary court actions to collect these which will only lead to further dividing of the community lastly if you find this too difficult I do not recall any of the roads leading to Cape Colony being one way.
