Cooke, Southern United In Marriage

Miss Donna Beth Cooke and Daniel Ray Southern were united in marriage on March 6 at 2 P.M. at Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George H. Cooke of Tyner. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Golie Southern of Toast, N.C.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by Rev. David Cooke, brother of the bride, of Mebane.

The wedding music was presented by Mr. Jake Boyce, organist and Mr. David Copeland, trumpeter. Vocalists were Rev. and Mrs. David Cooke, who composed one song especially for his sister.

The altar was decorated with brass candelabra, baskets of mixed white flowers and fresh palms.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of organza trimmed with silk Venise lace. The gown had full sleeves and a high neckline. The yoke was of Schiffli embroidery. The founced hemline ended in a chapel length train. She chose a veil of illusion edged in Venise lace.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Janet Cooke of Mebane, sister-in-law of the bride. Her gown was of Silesta chiffon in rose bud. It featured a blouson bodice and a sunburst pleated skirt. Bridesmaids were Mrs. LuAnn Miller of King, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Donna Haynes of Mt. Airy, cousin of the bridegroom, Miss Terry Windham of Elizabeth City and Miss Jill Copeland of Tyner. They wore dresses identical to the matron of honor in ruby. Her attendants carried arm bouquets of pink carnations. Miss Evie Bennett of Edenton was flower girl.

Mr. Golie Southern served as his son's best man. Ushers were Steve Page of Bahama, cousin of the bridegroom, Warren Miller of King brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Tom Vess of Jacksonville, and Kevin Cooke of Tyner, brother of the bride. Junior usher was Master Anthony Cooke of Tyner, nephew of the bride. Master Matthew Cooke, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of pink Silesta Chiffon and wore a corsage of miniature elegant carnations.

The groom's mother chose a gown of mauve Chiffon and wore a corsage of white miniature carnations.

Mrs. Willie Joyner of Tyner directed the wedding. Mrs. Randy Byrum attended the bride's register.

The reception was held in the church fellowship hall. After a wedding trip to Louisiana, the couple will reside at 15437 Jester Ave., Baton Rouge, LA, where the groom is employed with the Ethyl Corp. as a chemical engineer. The bride was formerly employed with First State Bank, Greenville, N. C.

On January 30, Miss Cooke was honored at a floating miscellaneous shower at Calvary Baptist

Dear Banne

Dear Banne, Help! I've been married to a guy who really loves me for three years. I feel so guilty. About six months ago I fell for a service station attendant. Now that we are involved he claims he loves me. He's left his wife and says if I don't tell my husband he will. I really love my husband, but he would not understand. I have no one to talk to. Please help and hurry.

him and try to get your life back in order. Tell your friend, the station attendant, farewell; that you need time to re-consider your marriage. Hopefully this friend (if he's any kind of friend) will remain silent. If anyone talks then it could certainly be you. I can't advise on whether or not you should tell him at this time since I don't know your husband's character.

If the station attendant will leave his wife for you, then he could possibly one day leave you for someone else. You better think it through because your husband could be the best part of your life. "The grass isn't always greener." Take caution!

"He who has clear ideas can command." Goethe

Distressed, You've really gotten yourself in a mess. It's usually best to consider the consequences before getting in such a predicament. Since you're already involved, here is a bit of advice.

If you do love your husband, as you say, then you'll be best to stay with
