Mills Are Trying To Meet Deadline Of Settling Contracts

Southeastern Section - Trading was slow as mills were trying to meet April 14 deadline of settling contracts with growers. Demand was moderate but offerings by mills were fairly light. Prices were higher for 14-16s and about unchanged for other grades. Rain, needed for better planting conditions, kept growers from preparing fields for planting - which was expected to get underway next week. Sales are for prompt delivery, cents per pound, unless otherwise stated. Runner type - shelled - jumbo 46½; medium April delivery few 45; No. 1 no sales reported; 14-16s 24, early sales 22.

 Virginia - North Carolina Section - Trading was moderate for in-shell peanuts and slow for others, as mills were concentration on negotiating contracts for the new crop. Demand was moderate. Prices were higher for in-shell and firm for others. Heavy winds blew away top soil in some fields. Cold weather and wet soil kept many growers from working fields in preparation for planting. Sales were for prompt delivery, cents per pound, unless otherwise stated. Virginia type - unshelled - jumbo few 46; fancy 44; shelled - extra large few 49; medium July - August delivery 49; No. 1 occasional 38½, April - May occasional 38; No. 2 with 70 per cent splits few 36.

 Southwestern Section - Trading was slow (but offerings were light) as growers and shellers met to settle contracts and due to uncertainty of the amount of the quota allotments. Demand was fairly good for peanut butter grades but light for others. Prices were about unchanged. Sales were for prompt delivery, cents per pound, unless otherwise stated. Prices represent few sales. Spanish type - shelled - jumbo 55; No. 1 53 - 54 few 54½; U. S. Splits 46; runner type - shelled - jumbo no sales reported; medium occasional 44½; No. 1 38; U. S.
