

American Legion Site For Junior Livestock Show

Debbie Ward, 4 - H Club member from Ryland Club won four trophies in the 1982 Chowan County Junior Livestock Show held last week at the American Legion Fair Ground. Debbie won Grand Champion Steer honors, Champion Fitting and Showmanship for Steers, Reserve Champion Individual Hog and Reserve Champion Pen of three Hogs.

Darryl Stallings, FFA member at John A. Holmes High School and Garry Copeland, both 4 - H and FFA member, won two trophies each. Darryl had the Reserve Champion Steer and Champion Fitting and Showmanship for Hogs. Garry came in with both Grand Champion Individual and Grand Champion Pen of Three Hogs.

Garry said, "It surely is nice to come in first in hogs after coming in near the bottom for steers a few times."

Both steers and hogs sold considerably better in the 1982 show than they did in 1981. (Nineteen eighty - one was probably the driest year on record for Chowan County farmers). All the hogs in the show last week averaged $1.01 per lb. This includes the hogs sold in a group. Hogs sold separately averaged $1.25 per lb. (Individual and top three pens of three hogs). In the show last year all hogs averaged 75 cents per lb. and individual hogs in 1981 averaged $1.08 per lb.

Steers in the 1982 show averaged 91 cents while 1981 average was 69.8 cents per lb.

General comment concerning the sale was "It certainly was better than last year." Murray L. Godwin, Agricultural Extension Agent said. "We are grateful for the support of the buyers this year. We have some new buyers and that helped. Of course we appreciate the help given by the four Ruritan Club members. They have been active in the show and sale for the 28 years of its existence."

"We thank the individuals and businesses that bought ads in the program. The trophy donors had a special part in the show. Probably the hardest working person at the sale was our good auctioneer Wallace Evans. Our livestock show is a team effort and we want to thank all who had a part in the team effort."

The Champion Individual Hog, owned by Garry Copeland purchased by Hobbs Implement and Sun Oil Co. for $3.05 per lb. This is the second highest price ever in the Chowan County Sale. The pig had the marking of the Hampshire Duroc breed.

The Steer Champion had Charlois blood and was exhibited by Debbie Ward. This meaty animal was purchased by S & R Super Market at $1.00 per lb.

The Champion Pen of Three Hogs was also bought by Mr. Roebuck for S & R at 90 cents per lb. This entry was also entered by Garry Copeland.

In the second round of the sale, the Reserve Champion Hog was bought by Rich Square Premix for $2.00 per lb. This hog was the property of Debbie Ward.

The Reserve Champion Steer weighed 1200 lbs. and was bought by Farm Bureau Insurance (Jimmy Stallings) at 75 cents per lb. This animal had the markings of Charlois and was exhibited by Darryl Stallings.

The second ranking pen of three hogs were shown by Debbie Ward and were purchased by Hollowell Oil Company at 76 cents per lb.

The remainder of the sale was as follows: Third place hog-Anna Goodwin, bought by Valhalla Produce for $2.25 per lb. Third place steer, Crystal Stallings, bought by Weyerhaeuser for 76 cents per lb. Third place pen of hogs, Mike Pippins, bought by Albemarle Tire Company for 80 cents per lb. Fourth place steer, Mike Pippins, bought by Byrum Implement Company for 77 cents. Fifth place steer,

Donna Pippins, bought by Chowan Storage Company for 80 cents per lb. Sixth place steer, David Hare, bought by C. A. Perry & Central Fertilizer for $1.15 per lb. Seventh place steer, Kent Howell, bought by Albemarle Chemical Company for $1.21 per lb. Eighth place steer, Martin Copeland, bought by Hobbs Implement & Sun Oil Co. for 89 cents per lb. Fourth place hog, Jonathan Nixon, bought by Valhalla Produce for $2.05 per lb. Fifth place hog, Richard Cox, bought by Bank of North Carolina for 95 cents. Sixth place hog, Darryl Stallings, bought by Hobbs Implement & Sun Oil Company for 95 cents. Seventh place hog, Crystal Stallings, bought by Union Camp & George Chevrolet for 90 cents. Individual hog, Valerie Copeland, bought by Rich Square Premix for $1.85 per lb. Individual hog, Mike Pippins, bought by Rich Square Premix for $1.20 per lb. Individual hog, Johnny Lowe, bought by Chowan Feed & Supply for $1.55 per lb. Individual hog, Dennis Cox, bought by Valhalla Produce for $1.10 per lb. Individual hog, Karen Cox, bought by Hobbs Implement & Sun Oil Company for $1.10. Individual hog, Donna Pippins, bought by Chowan Farm Bureau for $1.25. Individual hog, Carl Coston, bought by Valhalla Produce for $1.15. Individual hog, Danny Pippins, bought by Rich Square Premix for $1.25. One lot of hogs, Whitehurst Farms for 61 cents per lb. One lot of hogs, Weyerhaeuser for 60 cents per lb. One lot of hogs, Miller's Livestock for 62 cents per lb.

Crystal Stallings and fourth place, David Hare.

Results of the fitting and showmanship contest for hogs were as follows: 1st place, Darryl Stallings; 2nd place, Anna Goodwin; 3rd place, Mike Pippins and 4th place, Debbie Ward.

Anna Goodwin won the trophy for having the Best Project Book. Anna has won this trophy several times before.

The judge for the show was Robert Swain, swine specialist from Southeastern District.

Ryland Ruritan club did a good job of working in the refreshment stand.

Window Treatment Program

Do you have problem windows ... ? Need a new look for a special room ... ? Or, do you feel that you are losing hot (or cool) air through your windows??? If so, make plans to come to a special program on window treatments on April 28, at 2:30 or 7:30 P.M., at the Edenton Municipal Building. Frances Voliva, Tyrrell County Extension Chairman, will present the afternoon session. We will also have an opportunity to sign up for workshops on making Roman shades, draperies, etc. Plan now to attend.

The winners in the fitting and showmanship contest for steers were as follows: 1st place, Debbie Ward; second place, Darryl Stallings; third place,

Kindergarten Registration Slated

Kindergarten registration for students living in the White Oak School district will be held April 29, from 9 A.M. to 1 P.M. in the gymnasium at White Oak School.

All children who will be five years old on or before October 16, will be eligible to attend kindergarten when school opens next Fall.

Parents are required to present a copy of the child's birth certificate, which may be kept by the school. Parents are also required to present the child's immunization records. These can usually be obtained from the Health Department or private physician.

Unless parents so desire, it is not necessary to bring the potential kindergarten child to registration. However, a play area supervised by volunteers will be available while parents complete the registration process.

To ensure a smooth registration, trained volunteers and Health Department nurses will be at several stations to help parents during registration. The school's principal will also be on hand to assign buses for next year's new students.

More than 90,000 vehicles travel about 30 million miles each week to deliver U.S. daily newspapers to readers.
