ERQ Rally Slated For June

On June 6 at 1 P.M. supporters from all over North Carolina will gather quietly at the Plaza in Raleigh to "rally" for the victory of the Equal Rights Amendment. Dedicated speakers and the circulation of facts and figures have educated the public sector and there has been a dramatic change of climate in N.C.

Strong Democratic leaders in the state are supporting the party position on this legislation which will recognize that women should have equality of legal rights; that these rights should be so stated in the Constitution and that each state in the union will ensure these rights.

"Join us for a visible statement of truth!", it was stated.

Buses to the rally will leave Knobb's Creek in Elizabeth City at 9:00 A.M. with stops in Hertford, Edenton, Midway, Windsor and Williamston. Cost of the round trip ticket is $10.00. Call or write: Margnette Lassiter, Route 2, Box 251, Edenton, N.C. 27932, Phone (919) 482-2845 or Peggy Leeper at (919) 482-4953.

Wright and Bankhead United In Marriage - A Beautiful Occasion

Dorothy Katherine Wright and Martin Josef Bankhead of Charlottesville, Va., were married May 22 in St. Paul's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Raymond W. Storie. The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Orlo Wright of the Old Fish Hatchery, Edenton. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. M.W. Bankhead of Kano, Nigeria.

After a reception at the home of the bride, the couple left on their wedding trip to Martinique in the Caribbean. They will make their home in Charlottesville, Virginia.

The bride attended Salem Academy and received a Bachelor of Science degree from Wake Forest University. She is a recent graduate of the UNC-CH School of Pharmacy.

The groom is a graduate of Wake Forest University and is the Assistant Manager of Roadway Express in Charlottesville, Va. Presented in marriage by her father, the bride chose to wear the same dress that her mother had worn as a bride. This was a lovely
