Couple United In Marriage

Miss Lisa Pearl Ashley and Brian Marco Phillips were united in marriage June 6, at 3 o'clock in Rocky Hock Baptist Church. Officiating ministers were the Rev. Larry McClure and the Rev. Donald Wagner. The double-ring ceremony was performed in a setting of white gladioli, pom-poms, fugu mums, calla lilies, palms and candle light.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman L. Ashley of Edenton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry M. Phillips of Edenton.

Mrs. Mary Smith presented a program of organ music and Mrs. Anne McClure was soloist. Mrs. Lorene Bunch, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Donna Peele, cousin of the bride, served as mistresses of ceremony. Miss Rebecca Harrell, cousin of the bride, distributed programs.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk organza gown featuring a Queen Anne neckline and fitted bodice of silk venise lace and pearls. The full skirt featured a back panel and flounce of schiffli embroidery and silk venise lace with attached chapel train. The gown was complemented by a chapel length veil of bridal illusion edged with schiffli embroidery attached to a camelot head piece. She carried a silk cascade of white roses, stephanotis, lily of the valley, ivy and fern.

Mrs. Belva Biggs of Edenton, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a crystal pleated sea spray green dress of lustreglo polyester, with spaghetti straps and a sheer jacket with silk venise lace trim.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Amy Nixon, sister of the bridegroom, of Edenton, Mrs. Alice Blanchard of Belvidere, Mrs. Anita Whitehurst of Shiloh, and Miss Angela Bunch, cousin of the bride, of Greensboro. They wore dresses identical to that of the matron of honor. They all carried white lace fans with an attached bouquet of silk pastel flowers.

Miss Robin Evans, cousin of the bride, and Kristy Reed, cousin of the bridegroom, were flower girls. Master Adam Bunch,

Softball Marathon Slated

As many as 100 teams are expected to go to bat for handicapped children and adults in the annual Greenville Softball Marathon for Easter Seals later this month. Scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, June 26 and 27, at Evans, Jaycee, and Guy Smith Parks, the event is described as a "showcase of teamwork and community involvement" and will draw softball enthusiasts from all across Eastern North Carolina.

Last year's Marathon attracted some 70 teams and generated nearly $18,500 for Easter Seals programs.

Qualifying teams entering the Marathon can win a host of awards donated to the event by sponsors Pepsi-

Cola and Budweiser Light, such as special edition t-shirts, cases of beverages, and trophies. Other contributing sponsors include WOOW Radio, Greenville; WSFL Radio, New Bern; WRQR Radio, Farmville; WNCT-TV, Greenville; WCTI-TV, New Bern; and WITN-TV, Washington.

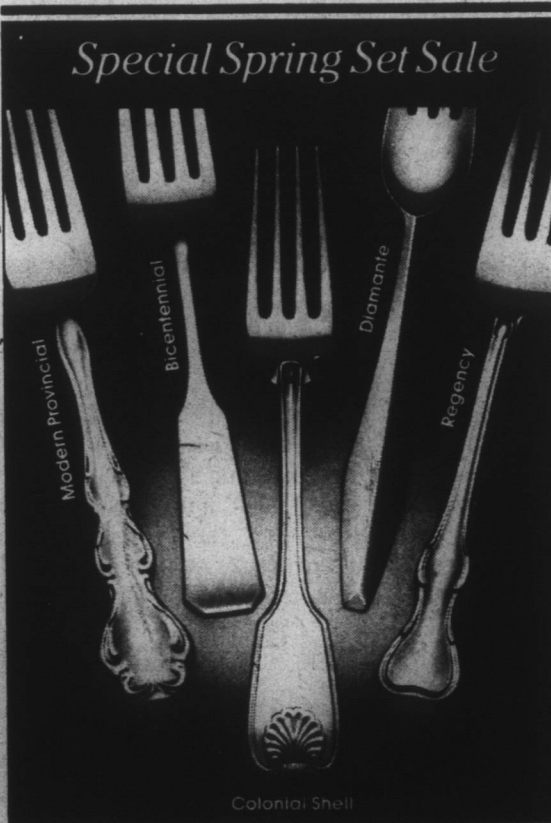

Teams interested in the Marathon should write Sue Roberts, Easter Seals Softball Marathon, 832 Wake Forest Road, Raleigh, N.C. 27604, or call the Softball Hotline toll-free at 1-800-662-7119.

The first coin to bear the portrait of a living president was the 1926 Sesqui-centennial half dollar, the obverse of which bore the heads of Presidents Washington and Coolidge.
