Whispers Of Time

By Murrell Smith
Time is Mercury with wings on his feet.
The recurrent messenger of the Gods.

Time is the sand in an hourglass.
Time is the center of everything.
Time has no memory.
Time has no friend.

We are all in one long caravan at road's end.
Yet time is the root of all this earth.

Time guides us still and we must all follow.

How goes the time.
The night is not yet done - midnight has still to come.
Dawn on the green - the touch of the moon's glimmer shines faintly.
I hear far off the throbbing of the boat oars.
The morning glories climb above my head.
The flowers are white, pale purple and red.

Whispers of Time travels through our town - our hallowed town.
All the children singing cheerfully and applauding around a blazing camp fire.

The winds are fragrant and move across the rocking sound.

Time is where the street of old towns is crowded with ghosts of yesterday - where weather - beaten barns crack under the fierceness of a summer's storm.

Time is where garden gates swing on their hinges - and in old and new houses, doors blow open to let in old man Time.

Time is the echo of a little girl singing to a rag doll with a sawdust heart.
At her side an old clock marking Time.

Time is a lovely old house where floors creak eerily and on moonlit nights the quaint old curtains dance to a slow waltz by Strauss as the winds blow ever so softly - and a straw hat falls to the floor.

Time is where boys are playing marbles.
Time is where two girls are laughing and running merrily and their faces are full of cheer.
Under the front porch an old dog takes a nap.

The peaceful people that you see everyday - of their delight in days that bring silver rain and falling snow.

The velvet blooms that nod and sway - warmed by the sunbeam's golden glow - all of that is The Whispers of Time.

Exam Date Set

The Special Enrollment Examination administered by the Internal Revenue Service each year to qualify persons other than attorneys and certified public accountants to practice before the IRS has been set for Thursday and Friday, October 14 and 15, 1982.

The special test will be given in Charlotte, Greensboro, and Raleigh.

Those interested in taking the examination should request a free materials packet from the IRS by calling 1-800-822-8800 any weekday between the hours of 8:00 A.M. and 4:30 P.M. The packet includes Form 2587, "Application for 1982 Special Enrollment Examination," and Publication 486, "Requirements for Internal Revenue Service Enrollment and Special Enrollment Examination." The latter publication outlines the general requirements for enrollment and identified sources of tax information which are helpful in preparing for the test. The examination will include true - false, multiple choice, and problem - type questions.

The application fee is $50 for those taking all four parts of the examination and $40 for prior year examinees taking fewer than four parts. All checks must be made payable to the "Internal Revenue Service" and postmarked no later than August 16, 1982. No extensions of time to file applications will be granted.

Gospel Music Concert Is Slated

Bill Wagner has been in gospel music most of his life. He has travelled extensively throughout the United States and Canada. Most of his work has been as a singer with groups or quartets. He last sang with the well-known Wetherford Quartet. Through full-time evangelism Bill is sharing Christ in concerts everywhere. He also sings in evangelistic campaigns for outstanding preachers, including Dr. C. M. Ward former Revivaltime speaker on International radio. Dr. Ward says the "Bill is a Christian Gentleman who brings to the ministry character and dependability. His clear, rhythmic, masculine voice has ministered from a thousand platforms - and always pointing the way to JESUS."

Wagner is returning to Edenton for an evening of gospel music at the First Assembly of God church on June 18th. The concert begins at 7:30 P.M. and the public is invited. First Assembly is located on US Hwy 17 Business South (Queen St. extended.)
