

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:
Education has and will always be an important aspect of my life. This is why I have been inspired to run for a seat on the Board of Education.

I am the father of two sons, who are enrolled in the Edenton-Chowan School System, a Minister of a local church, where we seek to help the cause of education through moral training. I was also born and reared in Edenton-Chowan County and attended the public schools here during the middle sixties at which time I personally experienced the quality of education provided by this county.

I later married and brought my wife to Chowan County where she is presently employed as a teacher.

With the training that I acquired here in this county, I was able to complete a Computer Programming Institute, and as a result, I am presently employed at Elizabeth City State University as a Computer Operator-Programmer.

I strongly believe that the quality of education today's society demands of its youth can only happen if we provide the most conducive atmosphere for our youth to learn. Quality Education is just like the Business World, it is very competitive. It is looking for the best finished product. This will require more time, concern and dedication on the part of pupils, parents, teachers, administrators and the Board of Education to reach this goal.

I pledge to you my utmost support, around the clock if necessary, to achieve this goal, if I am elected.

Dear Sir,

As election time approaches, there is one candidate running for a seat on the Board of Education who truly has the qualifications for this position. This person is Jane Underkofler.

Her interest in education has been evident by her regular attendance at board meetings over the last several years. As a result of her observance, her attention has been drawn to improvements over the past years and the needs apparent for our school system future.

As a mother of four, she has been exposed to primary, secondary and high school levels. She has
