

Hopkins Retires From Albemarle Motor Company

Thomas F. Hopkins, 100 Pembroke Circle, has retired as general manager and vice president of Albemarle Motor Co., Inc., on West Hicks Street. He had been associated with the dealership since 1958.

Hopkins and his wife, Mary, plan to relocate in Winter Haven, Fla., around August 1. He said they have chosen that location for retirement for health reasons.

Hopkins came to Edenton in May, 1956, as partner in a furniture business. He had been in the retail furniture business since 1945, having been associated with a firm in Plymouth for nine years prior to moving to Edenton.

Between 1958 and 1962 he was a salesman at Albemarle Ford. He was promoted to sales manager in 1962 and later became an officer in the corporation, headed by Bruce F. Jones.

A native of Tyrrell County, his first public job was in Winston-Salem as an agent with Home Security Life Insurance Company.
He was a staff manager when he was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1943. He was discharged in 1945.

Hopkins was a charter member of the Plymouth Jaycees in 1946. He served as secretary, treasurer, vice president, president and state director. He received the community service award in 1948 and the next year was named recipient of the Distinguished Service Award by the N.C. Jaycees a year later.

During his employment at Albemarle Ford, Hopkins received numerous sales honors. He headed the Tidewater Ford Truck Club from 1962 until 1965.

Mrs. Hopkins is the former Mary Nooney of Plymouth.
