

Washington Report: Hinckley Verdict Quite A Shock

By Congressman
Walker B. Jones
Many of us were shocked this week at the verdict in the Hinckley case. John Hinckley, Jr. was, of course, the young man accused of attempting to assassinate

President Reagan on March 30, 1981 at the Washington Hilton Hotel. President Reagan, his press secretary, James Brady, and several others were seriously injured in this assassination attempt.
Because the event was captured on video tape by news cameras, the whole country was able to see this tragic event replayed many times.

One distressing aspect of the verdict returned in the Hinckley case is that Hinckley has been labeled "not guilty" even though he was clearly the man who shot and wounded President Reagan and others in the Presidential party. Hinckley will be committed to a mental institution for a period of time in order to determine whether he constitutes a danger to himself or others. It is conceivable that he might be released after a relative short period of confinement and this would certainly appear to be an injustice.

Many Members of Congress have expressed an intent to support legislation that will alter the laws governing the insanity defense in cases such as Hinckley's. I certainly share the concern of these Members and will be looking closely at the various proposals that are made.

In Congress this week the House and Senate spent a good deal of time battling back and forth a Supplemental Appropriations Bill to provide funds for certain federal agencies so that these agencies can avoid closing down within the next few weeks. When finally passed by both Houses, however, the President vetoed the Appropriations Bill because it contained a program to provide emergency relief to the very depressed housing industry. The House then passed two alternative funding bills that did not include the housing program. The Senate, in turn, passed one of these bills. As of this time, the President has not indicated whether he will sign or veto this latest emergency appropriation bill.

Another item of interest occurring this week was the passage by the House of new tobacco legislation which I have described previously in the Washington Report.

What was remarkable about this was that the tobacco bill passed the House unanimously on a voice vote. Unfortunately, hopes for a similar quick passage in the Senate were dashed when certain problems developed in obtaining a time agreement to limit debate on the bill and thus prevent a possible filibuster.
It is expected that the tobacco bill will be considered in the Senate on July 14 after Congress has returned from its Fourth of July recess.

As mentioned above, Congress will be in recess for about two weeks. The Washington Report will accordingly be suspended during this time.
I want to take this opportunity to wish you all a happy and safe Fourth of July holiday.

never simple." Oscar Wilde

Facts About The BIBLE

BY JOHN LEHTI

"...AND HE ROLLED A LARGE STONE ACROSS THE ENTRANCE..."
MATTHEW 27:40

TOMBS LIKE THIS ONE
ARE STILL TO BE FOUND NEAR JERUSALEM. IT WAS IN SUCH A ONE AS THIS THAT JOSEPH OF ARIMA-THEA UNDOUBTEDLY LAID
JESUS TO REST.
THE LARGE CIRCULAR
STONES WHICH SEALED
THE TOMBS WERE ROLLED INTO A GROOVED SLOT.
ONE MAN COULD EASILY ROLL IT DOWN - BUT, BE-CAUSE OF THE GREAT WEIGHT, IT WOULD AL-WAYS NEEDED MANY VERY STRONG MEN TO PUSH THE STONE UP OUT OF ITS SLOT, IN ORDER TO OPEN UP A TOMB.
