Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

This summer, I am fortunate enough to be attending the Governor's School East, in Laurinburg, N.C. All of my experiences here have been enlightening ones. I have met all kinds of neat people and my teachers are great.

My chemistry teacher, who is Egyptian, speaks six languages and has taught in sixteen different countries. He teaches in the same rapid-fire method as the infamous Gill Burroughs.

The future students of John A. Holmes and North Carolina in general, may not have the opportunity to attend Governor's School and experience this most beneficial program.

Lack of sufficient revenue has prompted the General Assembly of North Carolina to consider the cancellation of the Governor's School program.

I would like to encourage the people of Edenton and Chowan County, to write the Governor, and other peons of the administrative machine, giving your support for this vital program. I hope the education of the young people of North Carolina is your number one priority.

Sincerely,
Eric Strother
Student at Gov. School

Mrs. Richard Charles Kern

Couple United In Marriage

On June 20 at 4 P.M., Miss Doris Jean Baker was united in marriage to Mr. Richard Charles Kern in an inspirational double-ring ceremony, officiated by Rev. Robert Harrell at Macedonia Baptist Church. The church was gayly decorated with an array of palms, gladiolas, carnations, and mums. There was a center brass arch of pink candles with two brass spirals of candles on either side. There were two brass tree candelabras on either side filled with pink and white flowers to match the large center bouquet.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Effie Cale and the late Grover Cale. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Alice Kern and the late Warren S. Kern, Sr. of New Jersey.

The groom escorted his bride to the altar whose hand in marriage was given by her daughter, Miss Kimberly Baker.

The bride wore a formal length gown of white Quiana over peau de soie designed with a Queen Anne neckline outlined in Silk Venise lace beaded with pearls. The Empire bodice was enhanced with Silk Venise lace appliques beaded with pearls. The sheer Bishop sleeves were finished with organza cuffs trimmed in Silk Venise lace. The modified A-line skirt and attached wateau train were edged in Silk Venise lace. She wore a bridal hat overlaid in Silk Venise lace and beads, with waltz length illusion. The bride carried a cascade of pink roses, white miniature carnations laced with lily of the valley and ivy.

The bride chose as her maid of honor her daughter, Kimberly Jean Baker. She wore a formal length gown of pink Quiana with an overlay of lace and a matching pink derby hat. She carried a colonial nogy of pink roses, cushion poms, miniature carnations, silk Queen Anne's lace with streamers. Honorary bridesmaids were; Nicki Simpson, Carol Simpson, Kathy Lane, of Hertford and Wayne Kern of New Jersey, served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were, Douglas Cale, brother of the bride, Mack Bunch and Wilber Ray Bunch, cousin of the bride, and Paul Tetterton of Elizabeth City.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother chose a short dress of dusty rose. The bridegroom's mother wore a two-piece blue suit. Both mothers were presented orchids.

The directors for the wedding were, Mrs. Barbara Cale and Mrs. Janet Bunch.

Mrs. Delores Hollowell and Mrs. Wilmar Hare presented an enchanting medley of love songs. Vocal music was provided by Miss Kim Baker, Miss Linda Twine and Mr. Chris Evans. Mrs. Rachel Simpson of Hertford, sister of the bride, attended the guest register for the couple.

Programs were issued to the guests by Master Douglas Wayne Cale, Jr. and Master Richard Charles Kern, Jr.
