Elmore Is Sworn In As N.C. Environmental Member

Three new members of the N.C. Environmental Management Commission were sworn in last Thursday at the commission's monthly meeting in Raleigh.
 Secretary of State Thad Eure swore in Alton G. Elmore of Edenton, Charles Pinkney Francis of Waynesville and M.L. Byrd of Southmont. Commission Chairman Thomas W. Bradshaw welcomed the three legislatively appointed members.
 Elmore is currently serving his third term as a Chowan County commissioner. He is owner-manager of Edenton Furniture Company and president of Chowan Realty Company. He is a member of Edenton Baptist Church, and he and his wife, Elizabeth, have two

Letter To The Chowan Herald Editor

Dear Friends,
 A lot of time was spent in preparation for this canoe trip and many people have contributed to its success. Of these I would like to acknowledge the following: Mr. Gil Holt, Scout Coordinator, who has been a constant source of encouragement, Mr. Royce Lankford of Union Camp for providing river charts and our first campsite, Mr. Waylon Jones for the use of his boat to survey possible campsites, Atlantic Forest Products for the rough lumber to build nesting boxes, Mr. William Koraska for accompanying us in his motor boat and his skills as a merchant marine seaman, and Mr. William Riddick who accompanied us in the other boat.

Finally, there are three men who deserve special thanks and recognition. They are Mr. Richard Lane assistant scoutmaster, Mr. Billy Owens assistant scoutmaster and Mr. Shelton Butler troop chairman. I wish to thank each of you publicly for the investments of time and energy to prepare the boys and the equipment for this trip. Without your help the trip could not have been possible. I want you to know your efforts will not be forgotten nor unrewarded; it has been a pleasure working with you. I am proud to call you friends.

Sincerely in Scouting
 Stan Turbyfill

CAESAR
 CZAR
 KAISER

In the Byzantine Empire, any person chosen as a ruler of a country might be called Caesar. In the Russian language the term became czar and in German, kaiser.

Post 40 To Hold Meeting

By Jim Criddle
 Welcome to the first edition of what I hope will be an informational column for all veterans.

Post 40's regular meeting night is on the first Tuesday of every month. Our August meeting will be on the third and our guest speaker will be James W. Ball Jr., who will show slides of his tour in Viet Nam.

Membership Kickoff will be on August 15 at the Post. This is for the whole family so plan to spend the day with us for fun, games and lots of good food. As long as your 1983 dues are paid this outing is free for you and your family.

Our baseball season is over for 1982. And our Sports Award banquet will be held on Thursday July 15. We will eat at 7:30 P.M. This is free for all season ticket holders and $5 per person for everyone else. Come on out and help us support Legion Baseball.

Did you know that if you have a VA home loan you can pay it off at any time without a penalty?

Did you know that if you were injured while on active duty there is no time limit on when you can file a claim for benefits?

If as a veteran you have any questions about your benefits please contact George Stokes at 482-7441.

If any veteran or legionaire would like to pass on some news through this column please contact James W. Criddle at 482-3538 (home) and 482-4471 (work).
