Mrs. Frankie Lynn Parrish

Miss Kavelle Weds Mr. Parrish

Miss Amby Faye Harrell and Frankie Lynn Parrish were united in marriage at 3 P.M. on July 11 at Yeopim Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Terry Jones, cousin of the bride.

The church was decorated with an array of palms, gladiolas, carnations and mums. A large white bouquet was in the center with a small arch candelabra behind, and on each side a tree candelabra filled with white flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stanton Harrell. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie M. Parrish. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

The bride wore a formal length gown of organza with a scalloped Queen Anne neckline. The bodice had tiny cape sleeves and was accented with silk venise lace motifs. The circular skirt and Chapel length train had ensets of Chantilly lace and ruffles. The bride chose a picture hat with matching lace and pencil edge streamers of illusion. The bride carried a small cascade of white roses, miniature carnations and baby's breath.

Mrs. Teresa Ward, sister of the bride was chosen as her Matron of honor. Bridesmaids were: Mrs. Patricia White, sister of the groom of Elizabeth City, Mrs. Sue Norris of Edenton and Miss Thomissa Winslow, cousin of the bride of Hertford. They wore gowns with white organza bodice and full rosetta taffeta skirts. The sheer yoke was accented with silk venise lace. They carried colonial nosegays consisting of pink and lavender miniature carnations, yellow and white daisies, purple status and baby's breath, with streamers to match their dresses.

Master Wayne Parrish, nephew of the groom was ring bearer and Miss Bonnie White, cousin of the groom was flower girl. She carried a basket of mixed spring flowers.

Mr. Jimmie M. Parrish was best man for his son. Groomsmen were: Mike Parrish, brother of the groom, Rickey Brabble and Sherwood Bass all of Edenton.

Mr. Hugh Dial presented a program of wedding music. Miss Lynn Overton was soloist.

Mrs. Carolyn Winslow of Hertford, Aunt of the bride was Mistress of ceremony. Mrs. Dorothy Brewar of Edenton.

Mr. & Mrs. Gene L. Broman

Miss White, Mr. Broman United In Marriage

The Salt Lake Temple in Salt Lake City, Utah, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Nell Renee White and Mr. Gene L. Broman.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Watson Earl White of Edenton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene F. Broman of Valencia, Calif.

The bride wore a wedding gown of ivory brocade satin bordered with antique satin. The dress was fitted to the hips, and then fell into a chapel-length train. It featured a scooped neckline, puffed princess sleeves, and a bow on the hip. She wore an open-crowned hat studded with pearls and a cluster of roses. Her accessories were pearl earrings and a pearl necklace, both gifts from the groom.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Lori Fletcher of Provo, Utah, sister of the groom; and Mrs. Eleanor Chase of West Covina, Calif., aunt of the groom.

The ushers were Abdul Kassir of Santa Barbara, Calif.; and Darryl Chase of Laie, Hawaii, cousin of the groom.

After the wedding, a luncheon was held in the Lion House, Brigham Young's historic home.

The couple honeymooned at Mammoth Lakes in the Sierra Nevadas, and returned to Valencia the following Friday for their reception. They will return to Provo in August.

The bride is a graduate of Brigham Young University, and the bridegroom will resume his studies there this fall.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

Inflamed Eyes

You should never take chances with your sight. If your eye becomes red and inflamed, for example, especially if the symptoms include pain and blurring, prompt treatment may be vital to prevent loss of vision.

Many causes of eye injury are obvious, but sometimes the eye can be injured without your knowing it. Only when symptoms develop, such as a red and inflamed eye, are you aware of a problem. Because your eyes are among the most delicate organs in your body, they are more easily damaged. Any disease and even a minor injury, left untreated, may cause permanent harm. An ulcer on the center of the cornea or a detachment of the retina are just two eye problems that may cause permanent impairment if they are neglected for even a few days.

The eye's sensitivity to injury and disease is also one of its best defenses against permanent damage, providing you act in time. Any minor problem should be examined by your eye doctor. You should also make it a point to have regular eye exams as a further protection in maintaining the health of your eyes.

Outer Space Dentistry

If you were an astronaut, you'd be getting some of the most thorough dental care in the world. Your teeth would be checked a lot more often than the regular checkups twice a year, especially if you were scheduled for a flight soon.

Even though an astronaut's teeth might be as perfect as his dentist can make them, he still may need special care once he leaves earth's orbit. That's why astronauts are trained in the use of an in-flight dental emergency kit.

Now with the space shuttle planning hundreds of flights in the future, the same kind of attention will be paid to dental care before the shuttle leaves and when it's way up there in space for long periods of time.

You may not have any plans to become an astronaut or to book passage on the space shuttle, but you probably value your dental health, just like other earthbound creatures do.

An ounce of prevention is worth a lot more than a pound of cure. Maybe it's time for you to have your teeth and gums checked.
