

Logan, Surrency Exchange Wedding Vows

Miss Pattey Leigh Surrency of Sylvester, Ga. and Joseph Lee Logan, Jr. of Edenton, North Carolina exchanged their wedding vows on June 19 at 6 P.M. at the First Baptist Church of Sylvester. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Surrency of Sylvester are the parents of the bride, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Logan, Sr. of Coral Gables, Florida.

Mrs. Joseph L. Logan, Jr.

The Reverend Ernie Pirkle performed the double ring ceremony against a background of scheffleria trees and boston ferns. The stain glass baptistry window was lighted and draped with southern smilax; on each side were brass spires, arches and crowns holding lighted wedding tapers. In the center was a table covered with a white army - navy cloth holding two brass candlesticks with an open Bible in the center. On each side of the table were large wedding urns arranged with pink roses, carnations, gladioli, alstroemia, chrysanthemums, pom-poms, and gypsophelia.

The wedding music was presented by Ms. Gail O'Neal, organist, and Mrs. James Coleman, vocalist, who sang "God, A Woman, A Man", "Evergreen", and "The Wedding Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a candlelight dress of chantilly lace and peau de suir, the modified bodiace featured a yoke of dainty tucks made of english net with a row of self covered buttons down the front. The Victorian neckline is outlined with matching lace. The back of the dress has a ruffle which forms a pinafore look and sweeps soft into a chapel length train. The chapel length veil of french silk illusion and chantilly lace is attached to a lace bandeau. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of phalaenopsis orchids, glacier ively and stephanotis. For sentiment, the bride wore a lovely pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Linda Bryan of Ithaca, N.Y., aunt of the bride, was maid of honor, and serving as bridesmaids were Miss Kimberly Logan of Coral Gables, the groom's daughter, Miss Nancy Futch of Waycross, Ms. Judy Slappey, Miss Robin Bell, and Miss Sue Johnson, all of Sylvester.

The Bridesmaids wore formal gowns of pink dacon organza with drop - shoulder bodice and attached to the organza bow at the back waist is a soft ruffle that sweeps around the hemline. The bridesmaids carried candlelight lace fans topped with fuchsia, roses, stephanotis and glacier ively.

The groom's father served as best man and groomsmen were Joe Logan, III, the groom's son, of Carol Gables, Al Surrency, the bride's brother, Bryan Golden, the bride's cousin, both of Sylvester, Jerry Fisher of Gainesville, FL, and Ed Jordan of Edenton, N.C.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughters wedding a floor - length dress of rose silk organza. A Cymbidian orchid completed her attier.

The groom's mother wore a floor - length touquois sheath of crape de shene with a full length toga. Accenting her dress was a yellow throat orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at the Sylvester Woman's Clubhouse. Greeting the guest was Mrs. Pearson Golden.

Attractive arrangements of lavender pixie carnations, freesia, pink roses, alstromeria, gypsophila, adorned the rooms and tables.

The bride's table was overlaid with a white army - navy cloth and centered with a beautiful tiered wedding cake which was topped with the traditional bride and groom. The same bride and groom was used on the bride's parents cake on their wedding day. Silver candelabra holding white burning tapers were placed on each side of the cake. Draped around the cake and tapers was southern smilax tucked with pink sweetheart roses. Serving at the bride's table was Mrs. Charles Beebe and Miss Amy Slappey.

The groom's table features a chocoate cake decorated with marzipan fruit. The table was covered with an army - navy cloth. Cutting and serving the groom's cake was Miss Robin and Miss Karen Eason.

A lovely table overlaid with a white army - navy cloth and draped with southern smilax tucked with pink sweetheart roses adorned with a silve punch bowl and silver candelabra held the delicious refreshments served by Mrs. Jimmy Rouse and Miss Julie Slappey.

Miss Jenny McNair and Miss Nancy Thompson served as hostess at a table holding a footed fruit bowl containing fresh fruit and mellons. Served with the fruit was nuts, mints, and dip.

Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Sam Williams, Mrs. Buford Dowdy, Mrs. Walter Powell and Mrs. Ricky Bartley.

The Brides book was kept by Sylvia Snipes and Miss Alison Beebe and Miss Brandi Rouse, cousins of the bride, presented satin roses filled with bird seed to the guest during the evening.

Traditional music was played during the reception by Mrs. Carroll Miller.

Several out of town guest attended the ceremony. Among these were: Mr. and Mrs. Alan Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. C.E. Dodson, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart, Mrs. Lois Ramsey, all of Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Black of Baltimore, MD., Mr. and Mrs. Barry Cutts of Tifton,

Continued On Page 3-A

For And About Women

Page 2-A

Thursday, July 29, 1982

Mr. and Mrs. Leon (Pete) Belch

Belches Celebrate 25th Anniversary

On July 11, Mr. and Mrs. Leon (Pete) Belch of the Rocky Hock Community celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary.

In honor of the occasion, the couple was given a party by their children and daughter-in-laws: Mr. and Mrs. Wade Belch, Tim Belch and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Belch.

Also helping at the celebration were: Teresa Forehand, Mrs. Charlie Peele, Mrs. Marvin Smith and Mrs. Jerry Peele.

The refreshment table was arranged with a three tier wedding cake, mints, nuts, a relish tray and dip, finger sandwiches, wedding cookies and fruit punch. The table also featured a center piece of daisies, carnations, Baby's breath, Baker's fern and a red rose center. The refreshment table was attended by Debbie Belch, Teresa Forehand, and Sandra Belch.

During the afternoon, approximately 100 friends and relatives of the couple came by for the anniversary celebration. The couple received many useful gifts in their chosen pattern of silver as well as many other useful items. The couple said good-bye to their guests and all was enjoyed by everyone.

Miss Slade To Marry

Dr. and Mrs. James N. Slade of Edenton announce the engagement of their

Kathryn Denise Slade

Two Are Honored

One of the highest honors in 4-H work was bestowed July 19 on two Chowan County youths.

Anna Goodwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Goodwin, Jr. Rt. 3 Edenton and Beverly Walker, daughter of Mrs. Betty Walker, 79 Davis Place, Edenton were "tapped" into the State 4-H Honor Club in a colorful ceremony marking one of the highlights of North Carolina 4-H Congress in Raleigh.

Membership in the some 1,200 member organization is a reward for outstanding service to 4-H work. The 4-H'ers are judged on their leadership abilities, moral standards, 4-H activities

Continued On Page 3-A

Musical Group To Perform

"The Followers", a group of college and high school students from Edenton, will present their music program and testimonies during the evening worship at the Edenton Baptist Church on August 1. Members of this group are Kim Baker, Susan Elks, Chris Evans, Mike Harmon, Elizabeth Hornthal, Susie Keeter, Steve Lane, Kim Martin, Alan Parker, Darryl Stallings, and Carla White. This talented group will also be performing in the Edenton area on August 11 at Rocky Hock Baptist Church.

Society News

Mrs. P.J. Warner entertained her two sons, William Henry Warner of Fairfax, Va. and George Allen Warner of Portsmouth, Va., on July 23. Also visiting were her son's wives and three of her grandchildren.

Lena M. Leary is attending the N.C. Clerk's Association Conference in Greensboro N.C., along with other members from across the state. The four day conference began July 26.

Methodist Topic

"Good News For Our Day" is the sermon topic selected by Bev. R. R. Blankenhorn for the morning worship service on August 1, 11 A.M., at the Edenton United Methodist Church. The text for this message is II Corinthians 4:6.

Miss Beth Swindell will be the guest vocalist for this service of worship.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:
I agree with Mrs. Jennie Ruth Peele in her letter to the Chowan Herald on July 15. It is a terrible shame that people do not exercise their right to vote. I too can't understand how one person can dominate most of the elected people and others too, but that seems to be the way it works. It is a shame and disgrace to the people of Chowan County when people are sent out from the city boards and factories to tell people who to vote for and even worse when they are told what will happen if they don't.

We live in a free country why not a free country? Individuals should be allowed to vote their convictions without any threat to their vocation.

I agree with Mrs. Peele that people should be

Continued On Page 3-A

Chosen For 4-H State Revue

RALEIGH—Beverly A. Walker, 79 Davis Place, Edenton, was one of 30 4-H members selected to model at the state Fashion Revue on July 20. The fashion show was held in conjunction with State 4-H Congress.

The daughter of Betty P. Walker, Beverly modeled a pleated skirt with a matching jacket and ruffled blouse.

She won the right to

Small-Kenney Wedding Is Set

Mr. and Mrs. Van M. Small of Edenton announce

Kathy Lynne Small

the engagement of their daughter, Kathy Lynne Small to Joseph Everette Kenney, son of Mrs. Pauline Kenney of Edenton and Mr. Chris J. Kenney of Gainesville, Georgia.

Miss Small is a graduate of Peace College in Raleigh and East Carolina University. She is presently employed by Spa Health Clubs in Wilmington, N.C.

represent Chowan County in the state event by placing high in a 4-H clothing camp competition held earlier this year.

Miss Walker had been a member of 4-H for the past five years and she is a member of the 4-H Honor Club.

State 4-H Congress is conducted by the N.C. Agricultural Extension Service.

The prospective bridegroom attended the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. He is presently assistant manager of Spa Health Club of Wilmington, N.C. The wedding will take place on September 18 at Edenton Baptist Church.

"Many hours are so obviously happy that it is a pleasure to watch them." Robert Lynd

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Donald G. Pierce wishes to express sincere appreciation for every thought and prayer, the food, floral designs, telegrams, calls, sympathy cards, time spent with the family, and all other deeds of kindness rendered during the tragic death of their loved one.

Lillian M. Pierce & Children
Christine, Wilbur & Kenneth Pierce

FOR SALE

Long School Desk (Seats 8) and Pine bench from Riverby Plantation (J. Gibson Perry).

This desk was used on the Plantation and accomodated the entire school body. Truly a Chowan County treasure.

Can be seen at Colonial Cottage Antiques, 203 S. Broad St. Edenton, N.C. 482-4680.

Continued On Page 3-A

Continued On Page 3-A

COMFORTABLY COOL
TAYLOR
THEATRE EDENTON, N.C.
PHONE 482-2312 OR 793-2185 FOR COMPLETE MOVIE INFO
LATE SHOW FRIDAY & SATURDAY AT 11:30
HE'S ONE BAD BOY
SAMSON
DELICIOUS! DEADLY!
SUPER SISTERS
BOTH RATED (R) • DOUBLE FEATURE EXCITEMENT

40% Off
all spring & summer
merchandise
The Betty Shoppe
downtown edenton

COMFORTABLY COOL
TAYLOR
THEATRE EDENTON, N.C.
PHONE 482-2312 OR 793-2185 FOR COMPLETE MOVIE INFO
ENDS THURSDAY "STAR TREK II" AT 7:10 & 9:15
THURSDAY IS SENIOR CITIZENS NITE ADM. $1.50
★STARTS FRIDAY★
MOST DEVASTATING FLYING MACHINE EVER BUILT
his job... steal it!
CLINT EASTWOOD
FIREFOX
SHOWS NITELY AT 7:00 & 9:30 (DUE TO LENGTH)
THURS. IS SENIOR CITIZENS NITE ADM. 1.50
FRI. IS LADIES NITE ADM. ONLY 1.50
TUES. IS BARGAIN NITE ADMISSION ONLY 1.50
COMING SOON: "E.T.", "ANNIE" AND "TEX"
STARTS FRI. PLYMOUTH THEATRE "THE THING" (R)

U-HAUL COSTS YOU LESS.

Cut High Wrecker Costs With A Do-It-Yourself U-Haul Toe Bar!
Leary Oil Co., Inc.

West Water Street Phone 482-2306 Edenton, N.C.

• Commercial Discounts Available •