

Citizens Join Forces To Recognize House Speaker

LEWISTON - WOODVILLE — The Northeastern North Carolina Legislative Caucus will join with Historic Hope Foundation, Inc., Historic Murfreesboro Association, Inc., The Gallery Theatre, Inc., Martin Community

Players, and the citizens of Hertford, Bertie, Northampton, Gates, Martin, and Pitt Counties in their reception and picnic in honor of Liston B. Ramsey, Speaker of the N.C. House of Representatives," according to Northeastern

North Carolina Legislative Caucus chairman, Senator

Liston Ramsey

J.J. (Monk) Harrington (D-Bertie).

The Ramsey Reception-Picnic has been scheduled for 6 P.M., September 16, at the Historic Hope Plantation, four miles west of Windsor. Members of the Northeast Caucus are Sen. Harrington, chairman, Sen. Melvin Daniels (D-Pasquotank), Sen. Julian Ailsbrook (D-Halifax), Sen. Vernon White (D-Pitt), Rep. Vernon James (D-Pasquotank), Rep. Charles Evans (D-Dare), Rep. Howard Chapin (D-Beaufort), Rep. John B. Gillam, III (D-Bertie), Rep. C. Melvin Creecy (D-Northampton), Rep. George Hux (D-Halifax), Rep. William D. Harrison (D-Martin), Rep. Sam Bundy (D-Pitt), and Rep. Ed Warren (D-Pitt).

"The purpose of the Ramsey Reception-Picnic is to thank Speaker Ramsey for the assistance which he gave and the interest which he has shown to Historic Hope, Historic Murfreesboro, the Gallery Theatre, Martin Community Players, and the citizens of the old 5th (Hertford, Bertie, Northampton, Gates, 6th (Martin, Halifax) and 7th (Pitt, Green) House Districts", stated Sen. Harrington. "The redistricting of the northeast caused much confusion. Our House and Senate Districts were divided and county lines crossed. This event which is being hosted by Rep. Gillam, the Gallery Theatre, Historic Murfreesboro, Historic Hope Martin Community Players and the citizens of Hertford, Bertie, Northampton, Gates, Martin, and the Bethel and Stokes Townships in Pitt will give all of us in the northeast an opportunity to visit and get to know one another. So many of the new House and Senate Districts have thrown people together who really have not worked together before," continued Senator Harrington.

"The Ramsey Reception-Picnic is a covered dish picnic supper preceded by a reception."

The reception will be hosted by volunteers of the Gallery Theatre, Inc., Martin Community Players, Historic Hope Foundation, Inc., and Historic Murfreesboro Association, Inc. The reception picnic is opened to everyone. "It's important that we have a good gathering," stated Rep. Gillam.

Green To Be Chairman

North Carolina's Jimmy Green, was elected the Southern Region Chairman of the National Conference of Lieutenant Governors during their 21st annual meeting held in Orlando, Fl., August 23-26. The Southern Region is made up of 15 southern states and Puerto Rico.

That makes Lieut. Gov. Green an officer and a member of the executive committee of the Conference.

The National Conference of Lieutenant Governors was established June 15, 1962, in Seattle, Wash. Its members come from all 50 states and the four territories. The general function of the Conference is to foster interstate cooperation and promote efficiency and effectiveness throughout state and territorial government administration.
