Peanut Festival Features Ballet Group

The Virginia Beach Community Ballet will again appear in Edenton during Peanut Festival. This group of young dancers has recently appeared at the Azalea Festival and has given two major performances at the Virginia Beach Pavillion. One of the senior dancers is Andrea Rankins, granddaughter of Earl and Elizabeth Long of Edenton.

Several works will be performed on October 2 at 11:30 A.M. in the Holmes Auditorium. Among them are "Company Audition", a "pas de deux", a jazz number and a featured solo.

On September 24, Virginia Beach Community Ballet will be the featured company at the First Annual Virginia Beach Dance Festival to be held in the Kempsville Recreation Center.

Come and spend an enjoyable hour with the dance in the Holmes Auditorium, 11:30 A.M., October 2, immediately after the Peanut Festival parade.

For best results, firewood should be split and stacked, either in cordwood fashion or ricked crisscross (log cabin style) says the North Carolina Division of Forest Resources. Covering the top layer will help protect the stack from being soaked by rain or snow.

Competition For Northeast Pork Queen Underway

A special treat is in store for visitors to the Chowan County Fair on Tuesday night at 8:30. Six girls representing five counties will be competing for the Northeast Pork Queen crown.

The event is being co-ordinated by the Northeast Pork Council and is sponsored by the Fair Association and the following feed companies: Cargill Nutrena, Wayne, Rich Square Pre-mix, and Ralston Purina.

The contestants are: Debra Ann Alons from Hyde County, Cheryl Faye Stallings and Donna Patricia Elliott from Perquimans county, Debbie Lynn Jordan from Chowan County, Esther Dale Adams from Bertie county, and Deborah Kay Suter from Tyrrell county. Each contestant will be observed by the judges at a dinner party, during private interviews, in evening gown competition, and at the presentation of a three minute oral essay. They will be judged on beauty, communication, knowledge of pork, and personality. The winner of the contest will receive a trophy, crown, and $100 cash award. The second place winner will receive $75 and the third place winner will receive $50.

The oral presentation and evening gown competition will take place at 8:30 on the main stage at the Fair. Be there for an evening of new and different entertainment.

The agenda for the contest shall be:
5:00-7:00 - Outdoor cookout and get acquainted time at home of George and Reta Jones for judges and contestants. Private interviews and a drawing for the order of contest appearances will be held at this time (casual clothes).
7:15-7:30 - American Legion Fairgrounds - Main stage area - Contest briefing and last minute instructions.
7:30-8:30 - Prepare for contest.
8:30-9:30 - On main stage. Three minute oral presentations by contestants in order decided by drawing. Evening dress appearances. Oral question and answer. Judges' decision. Crowning of the 1982 Northeast Pork Queen.

Square Dance Lessons

In commemoration of Square Dancing being named as the National Folk dance of the United States, The Colonial Square Dance Club of Edenton will be sponsoring square dance lessons.

Registration for lessons will be on Monday nights September 20 and 27 at 8 P.M. at the Edenton J.C. building. For further information call 482-3986 or 793-4500.

Like to hunt and fish? The N.C. Wildlife Resources Commission has over two million acres of public hunting and fishing areas enrolled in its Game Lands Program. All a sportsman needs to use these areas is a sportsman's license, or a hunting or fishing license and game-lands use permit.
