

Miss Hoggard, Mr. Feher Are United In Marriage

Miss Gay Hoggard and Mr. John Ruben Feher were united in marriage September 16 at 6:00 at Perrytown Assembly of God. Officiating ceremony was the Rev. B. Lawrence.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Betty Hoggard and the late Oscar Hoggard of Colerain. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Feher of Ahoskie.

The bride was given in marriage by Richard Jackson Jr., of Edenton, brother-in-law of the bride. Music was presented by soloist Amy Hoggard of Askewville, with Marylin Wyrick the organist and Amy White the pianist.

Miss Ginger Hoggard, sister of the bride, of Perrytown, N.C. was the maid of honor she wore a blue and white swiss polka dot dress and carried a bouquet of daisies. Glenda Jackson of Edenton, sister of the bride was mistress of ceremonies. Best man was Ricky Feher of Ahoskie, brother of the groom. The ushers were Ray Layton of Edenton, brother-in-law of the bride and Doug Mizelle of Ahoskie.

The bride wore a formal length gown of white chiffon over taffeta designed with a high neckline encircled with Chantilly lace and crystal pleating. The bodice featured a sheer yoke of illusion accented with Brussels lace outlined in clipped Chantilly lace. The sheer chiffon sleeves were also trimmed in the matching Chantilly lace and crystal pleating featuring closure buttons. The waistline was encircled with a satin ribbon forming a bow at center back. The modified A-line skirt and attached Chapel length train were enhanced with a French Chantilly peplum in front and back.

She wore a waltz length gown of illusion edged in Chantilly lace held in place by a caplet overlaid in Chantilly lace beaded with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of daisies and babies breath.

The bride is a graduate of Bertie Sr. High School, with a word processing diploma from Chowan College. She is employed at Home Savings & Loan in Ahoskie.

The groom is a graduate of Bertie Sr. High and is employed at Lewiston Peanut Belt Research Station.

The bride and groom left the reception for their trip to Outer Banks of N.C. On their return they will reside in Ahoskie.

Loss Of Sleep

After receiving congratulations on having a healthy baby, brace yourself for jokes about lost sleep.

During those first few months following childbirth, many parents wonder if they will ever sleep through the night again. Some begin to wonder if they are doing something wrong or if there is something wrong with the baby.

Parents need to simply

Legion Honors Special Students

When the most recent meeting of the American Legion got under way there were several honored guest who took the podium. They were the boy's and girls who participated in Boy's and Girl's State. They had been asked by the American Legion to relay the experiences that they had while there.

The participants wove their story slowly as each took a turn relaying his or her own personal views on Boy's and Girl's State. Carie Parker gave the first thread to the audience when he said, "I learned a lot about the inner workings of government."

Kenneth Valentine elaborated on the first thread when he said, "At first, when I got there, I thought that as a member of government you do what ever you want to do but I learned that government is for all the people."

John McClure expressed a similar point of view when he came home and told his mother that "government was a pain in the ..."

Workshop Held

A special issues workshop was held at Edenton United Methodist Church on Thursday Sept. 16. Delegates from seven sub-districts were present. It was a very informative workshop. Mrs. C. B. Smith was in charge of the workshop.

Dr. Candence Corson was the speaker. Her subject being Nuclear Holocaust. It was a very enlightening program. The group was made aware of the terrible disaster that a nuclear war would be and that we must do something about it now! An excellent
