

The American Legion Report

American Legion
Jim Criddle

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who came to the Chowan County Fair this year. We had the biggest midway in our history and we sincerely hope that everyone enjoyed themselves.

Another thank you to all legionnaires and auxiliary members who donated their valuable time to help us make this year's fair a big success. This is the biggest community project that the Legion undertakes and without your help it would be an impossible task. A special thank you goes out to Bill Perry, Fair Manager, who did a splendid job of bringing everything together.

For those of you who worked this year don't forget the banquet on Friday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 P.M.

Our November meeting will be a joint one and there will be representatives of the Chowan County Rescue Squad to show us the latest techniques of First Aid & CPR. This will be very interesting and beneficial to each of us. Lets have a big turnout for this lifesaving session. Remember: The life you save could be one of your loved ones.

The Law Enforcement Banquet will be on October 14th. Come out and help us honor these dedicated men and women.

A special thanks to Dr. Bhandaru, the nurses, and hospital personnel who attended me.

I'd also like to thank all my friends for their cards and sympathy in the loss of my sister, Margaret Eash. I ask God's blessings on each and everyone of you.

Gratefully,

The Peanut Festival Regatta

The Peanut Festival Regatta got off with a bang, literally, with the firing of a 10 gauge brass starting cannon from the deck of Emmett Wiggins' tug. Twelve yachts crossed the starting line in a light breeze, which didn't pick up until several hours later, and headed out into the Albemarle Sound. Three and a half hours later Larry Tynch led the parade across the finish line. However, due to handicap corrections, first place was to go to Fritz Smith sailing "The Melon."

Meanwhile, a collection of twelve daysailers, boardboats and a windsurfer were racing around a short course in Edenton Bay. First place honors for the daysailers went to the father and son team of Otis and Eric Strother in their Tanzer 16. Bill Norvell, crewed by Ben Rhinehart, took first place in the boardboat division. At the awards ceremony at Edenton Marina, trophies provided for the cruising division by Tanzer Yachts.

The trophies were presented to the following:

First place, The Melon skippered by Fritz Smith.

Second place, Opal skippered by Joe Wright.

Third place, Aeolus skippered by Alan Humphrey.

Fourth place, Scarlett skippered by Warren Hibbard.

Fifth place, Perrier skippered by Larry Tynch. Daysailer results were first place, Otis and Eric Strother, second place, Ken Tynch and Patrick Becker, third place, Gil and Barbara Burroughs.

Boardboat results were first place, Bill Norvell and Ben Rhinehart, second place, Donna Ashley and Tracie White.

208th Anniversary Celebration of The Edenton Tea Party

Saturday, October 23, 1982 (Additional Activities Sunday)

Edenton Waterfront — For Further Information (919) 482-3663

The Edenton Historical Commission extends to all women (and do bring the spouse and kiddies, too) to come to Edenton, North Carolina on October 23 and help us celebrate the 208th Anniversary of the Edenton Tea Party.

The event, heralded as the first instance of purely political activity in the American Colonies, took place on October 25, 1774 when 51 ladies of the area affixed their signatures to a formal letter supporting the protests by their "near and Dear Connexions", the men of the 1st N.C. Provincial Congress which had assembled the previous August. One of the protests was the English Tax on tea. The ladies letter was sent to England and in January, 1775 a newspaper in London gave an account of the affair with some satirical remarks, dubbing it "The Edenton Tea Party."

Some of the events included in the celebration are the award-winning second North Carolina Regiment of Foote which will be hosting a 100 person military encampment of men, women and children in authentic 18th century dress, living as they might have in Revolutionary War times.

Demonstrations include tomahawk throwing; candle making; spinning; musket cleaning; loading and firing and much more. There will also be a military parade and skirmish several times during the day.

The skipjack "Norfolk" will be here as a special goodwill gesture from the City of Norfolk. This authentic sailing vessel will be available for boarding and inspection except when participating in a sea battle. The pirate ship "Sinbad" will also be available for boarding when docked. There will be a major battle involving both sailing ships and all colonial militia on the waterfront.

There is plenty of music and dancing planned including the old-time fiddle demonstration by the Suffolk Hornpipe & Clog Association; the 18th Century Dance Ensemble from Williamsburg; the N.C. Visiting Artist Flute and Percussion Ensemble and hammered dulcimer music by Michael Mann.

The Optimist Club will be preparing Brunswick Stew in kettles over open fires in Colonial Park. Plates may be purchased from 12 - 6. A kettle of Hoppin John will be prepared and sold on the Courthouse Green along with homemade pie, ham and biscuits and fresh apple cider. A pastry auction will be held on the Green with freshly baked pastry being auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Many activities have been planned for the children: hoop-rolling; top spinning; pea dab shooting; free movies; making corn-husk dolls and horseshoes are just a few. Ken Kaye will have a juggling demonstration and instructions.

A special one-man show of political cartoons by Dwane Powell, syndicated cartoonist with the Raleigh News & Observer will be in the Courthouse.

There will be demonstrations on the Courthouse Green by period craftsmen along with the Carolina Peddler and fortunes told by the Witch Woman. An archaeological display of afro-american culture of the 18th Century will be at the Municipal Building. Penelope's Tea Room will be open on the Barker House Veranda. Guided tours will be available from the Barker House.
