

The Bandon Chapel Notebook — Baptismal Font Presented To Church

By Maggie B.
Hi Neighbors! In these days of turmoil, strife, high costs, high unemployment, etc., when it seems so hard just to "keep our heads above water", many people are searching for something to make life worth living. Grace Easley gives us that "something" in her poem "Little Sparrow". Share it with me:

"When I have a lot of worries, and my soul is weighted down, I can almost hear Him saying, 'Only crosses make a crown' And when my eyes are burning from the tears that I have shed, Comes the gentle voice 'Remember what I suffered in thy stead'?"

When I look around for comfort, and there is no listening ear, Comes a whisper close beside me, 'Hush my child, for I am here!' And somehow the heavy burden that I almost couldn't bear, Slips from off my aching shoulders and becomes as light as air.

And my heart is filled with gladness, and with peace when it recalls, He knows all things, down to the time the smallest sparrow falls. And a new hope stirs within me, like the beat of feathered wing, And in His outstretched arms I find a love to which I cling.

And I am no longer troubled at the turning of the ways, For long ago He told me 'I am with you all the days'. And I find a blessed haven, beyond the reach of man, Just like the tiny sparrow that He shelters in His hand."

This Lord's Day dawned crisp and clear. The sun danced across the waters of the mighty Chowan while highlighting trees dressed in their brilliant colors - a beautiful Fall day! The air was clean and fresh - the bounty of God's handiwork surrounded us. Just right to enter the church of our choice for a spiritual refueling.

The fine folk gathered for Sunday School at Bandon Chapel were cheerfully greeted by Supt. Stan Turbyfill who made the usual announcements, then gave us something to think about. He requested that we ask God to give us a task to do and that we dare to dream BIG dreams for we have a Great God.

"God Leads His People into the Promised Land", Jos. 3:14 - 4:7, was the topic for our adults, skillfully taught by Wm. F. Smith. God's Presence continues with His people as they enter new experiences. Aim was that students share with one another how God has helped them to enter a new phase of life.

invited Deacon Wm. F. Smith to join him for presentation of the Baptismal Font. Deacon Smith stated "We praise God for making it possible to present the Baptismal Font to this church. My wife and I have a warm spot in our hearts for Bandon Chapel and since we baptise in any manner one wants, we present this Font in memory of our fathers and to the honor and glory of God."

Pastor Bob accepted for Bandon with deep gratitude for the many, many hours of hard work given by Butch and Rose Smith for the good of Bandon Chapel. Then, he dedicated this beautiful Font to the memory of Mr. Wm.

F. Smith, Sr. and Mrs. John Merritt Polston and to the honor and glory of God.

Half-Time Cooking

Many hostesses are finding that creating a party around a televised game not only helps beat the "sports widow" blues, but can also be a great way to entertain. Here are some "half-time" cooking and entertaining hints for the big game.

To create a festive mood for a sports-watching party, choose fitting decorations, such as baseball or football memorabilia. Cut down on your cooking time with a versatile toaster oven.

Among the ancient Greeks it was considered good for the crops to plant a piece of year-old corn along with the seeds.
