Program Of Physical Fitness To Be Held

A broad program of physical fitness for adults is being held at the Helms Center. The program is designed to improve the health of older persons. It includes a series of exercises for persons who are unable to attend the program. Similar programs are being held across the state.

in attending the training workshop should contact Lee Riddick, Area Agency Administrator at ARPDC in Hertford, telephone 426-5753. Ernest Messer, Assistant Secretary of Aging, Department of Human Resources, strongly endorses the program. "With advances in medical science making it possible to add years to our lives, we must concentrate on adding good health to our years to retain our independence, happiness, mobility and physical capabilities," said Mr. Messer.

Card Of Thanks

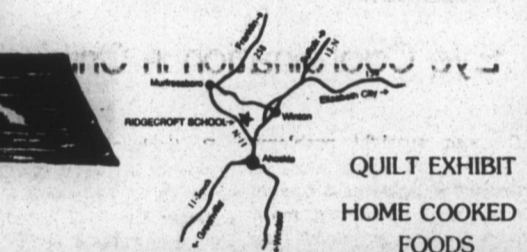

It is during a time like this that we learn how much our family and friends really mean to us. Thank you sincerely for all that you did for us during Dean's long illness and death, especially for your contributions to the Cancer Fund and other charities. We deeply appreciate your sympathy and assistance. Our consolation is in the prayers and understanding of friends like you.
May God bless each of you.
