

Old Fashioned Barn Dance

You'll come! To an old-fashioned Barn Dance at the Rocky Hock Community Center on Friday, November 26, beginning at 7:30 P.M. The Colonial Squares, popular local square-dancing group, will be on hand to get the evening started and to encourage reluctant feet. Clogging enthusiasts will enjoy watching and joining the clogging of Gene Baker. Plenty of foot-stomping music will be provided by the Rocky Hock

Rebels with Joe Swanner calling the dances. The ladies of Rocky Hock will have available sweet-potato ham biscuits, home-baked desserts and snacks. Admission for the Barn Dance is $1 for non-members and no charge for members. The members of Rocky Hock Community Center invite everyone to join them for this time of family fun and fellowship.

THE JOHN A. HOLMES HIGH SCHOOL BAND—Named Band of the Day during Chowan College's Festival of Marching Bands held during Homecoming. The trophy was accepted by drum majors Eric Strother and Linda Twine and Ken Tynch, who directs the swords, flags and rifles. Chowan President Bruce E. Whitaker, left, announced the winner. The trophy and $500 cash award were donated by the Belk Tyler Stores of eastern North Carolina. The festival attracted 12 area high school bands.

Brothers Graduates From SNCO

November 10 (FHTNC)—Marine Staff Sgt. Ernest Brothers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brothers Jr. of Route 2, Box 20A, Edenton, N.C., has graduated from the Staff Non-commissioned Officers (SNCO) Academy, Camp Lejeune, N.C. The Academy is designed to provide staff sergeants and sergeants selected for promotion to staff sergeant the fundamental skills, professional knowledge and leadership required by the Marine SNCO at the staff sergeant and gunnery sergeant levels. Primary emphasis is placed on leadership, military instruction techniques, effective military writing and communication, problem solving, confidence building, military bearing, command presence and physical fitness.

Howard To Speak On Childbirth

Dr. Robert E. Howard, Jr. from the Obstetrics and Gynecology Associates of Hampton, Inc. will be speaking at the AHEC building, next to the Albemarle Hospital, on Wednesday, December 1 at 8 P.M. Dr. Howard's topic will be: "Overcoming Obstacles to Implementing Family Centered Maternity Care in the Hospital." He will also be showing slides of family centered births he has attended.

of the possibility of adding a birthing room to the Albemarle Hospital. "Heart Fund Day" At Space Escape Each year, the American Heart Association approaches local corporations and small businesses about making contributions to research aimed at heart diseases. The owner of the Space Escape in response to the Heart Associations request has proclaimed Saturday, November 27, "Heart Fund Day" at the Space Escape. All the proceeds from that days activities at the video arcade will go into the Heart Fund.
