

Mrs. Albert Donnell Granby

Miss Peebles, Mr. Granby Exchange Vows

Miss Euvonne Arbodella Peebles and Albert Donnell Granby were united in marriage on Saturday, November 27th, at one o'clock in the afternoon at Shiloh Baptist Church, Boykins, Virginia.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Peebles Carter and the late Joe E. Peebles of Drewryville. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Sallie Gholston of Branchville and Mrs. Josephine Cousins of Drewryville.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Janie Granby of Edenton, North Carolina and the grandson of Mrs. Katie Granby of Va. Beach.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. C. Elliott before an arch of lighted cathedral candles within a fan candelabra. The fan candelabra and the altar vase were decorated with mixed silk flowers accented with burgundy and pink roses.

Mrs. Thelma Jennings, organist, of Franklin rendered the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Peggie Smith and Mrs. Evelyn Carter, soloists, who sang "People" and "We've Only Just Begun" prior to the wedding ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" after the marriage vows.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Elger Peebles, and given in marriage by her family. She wore a formal gown designed of white organza and chantilly lace. It featured a Queen Anne neckline outlined with organza ruching. The all lace bodice released a full circular skirt and cathedral train. The front panel of the skirt was tiered with lace and organza ruffles. An identical motif of lace and ruffles swept down the back of the train. The bishop sleeves were tightly cuffed in lace with organza ruche.

Her picture hat was designed of hand embroidered lace. The scalloped brim was encrusted with a double row of seed pearls. The pearls encrusted crown was adorned with a delicate silk flower. It was covered and veiled with France point d'esprit illusion. She carried a bouquet of red roses, pink miniature carnations and baby's breath accented with ribbon streamers.

Miss Margorie Joyner of Drewryville was maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of burgundy. The gown had a laced bodice and sleeves with a pleated circular skirt. The outfit was highlighted with a matching burgundy pillbox hat with a matching veil. She carried a bouquet of burgundy and daphne silk flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joyce Peebles of Norfolk, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Yolanda Hackney of Philadelphia, cousin of the bride; Miss Joyce Granby and Miss Elaine Granby of Va. Beach, sisters of the groom; Miss Jacqueline Granby of Va. Beach, cousin of the groom; Mrs. Diane Clark of Va. Beach; Mrs. Juanita Wharton of Norfolk and Miss Theresa Blunt of Chesapeake. They wore identical daphne colored formal gowns with laced bodice and sleeves with an attached pleated circular skirt. Their outfits were also highlighted with a matching daphne pillbox hat with matching veil. They carried a bouquet of daphne and pink silk flowers.
