Ruritan Club Meeting Held

Chowan Ruritan Club will meet Monday night for its regular meeting.

Club officers were installed by Carlton Nixon, District Governor of the Ruritans. Christmas bags were prepared by the club for shut-ins.

Brief remarks were made by the out going president, Kent Rowley about the accomplishments made by the club last year; some of which were sponsors of the Live Stock Show and Sale, Law-Enforcement Banquet and sending a young man to Boys State, and several others.

President Troy Toppin made a brief statement on a project for the coming year. "One will increase membership and one is a community project."

The Chowan Ruritans met on the last Monday (night) of each month.

The three Ruritan Clubs in the County are Chowan, Advance, and Cape Colony.

Chowan was chartered in August, 1946.
