

"COURTESY IS CONTAGIOUS" HELPERS — The third graders of Walker School recently had an opportunity to carry out the school systems theme "Courtesy Is Contagious - Spread It". They were honored on March 3rd to have the following "Community Helpers" as lunch guests: John Becker, J.D. Parrish, Chuch Westbrook, Gary Swanner, Elliot Astupenas, Kathryn Forehand and Rebecca Lowe. Not pictured are Chief Perry, Mrs. Crisant, David Mertz and Walter Noneman. Third grade students (left to right) Chris Bunch, Crystal Belfield, Tiwana Johnson and Tamika Boyce.

BANKING IS—Peoples Bank & Trust Company of Edenton presented check sets and student study guides entitled "Banking Is" to John A. Holmes High School as a public service to the students. The program gives the students firsthand experience with the basic banking activities they will use throughout their lives. Betty S. Bunch, Assistant Vice President and Frank E. Cox, Assistant Vice President made the presentation to Sandra Faircloth, Deborah House, Marcheta Sawyer, and Teresa Kerber, teachers at John A. Holmes. (Photo by Clay Roberts)

Obituaries

Cornelia Helms

Mrs. Cornelia Parker Helms, 89, died March 6, 1983, at the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, N.C.

Mrs. Helms was a native of Gates County. She was the daughter of the late Joseph Albert and Elizabeth Everett Parker, and the wife of the late George Ambler Helms.

Surviving are: one sister, Mrs. Edna Earl Story of Charlotte, N.C.; and two grandchildren, Mary Lou Kinton of Youngsville, N.C. and Terry W. Brown of Virginia Beach, Va.

A graveside service was held on Tuesday, March 8, 1983 by Rev. Richard Blankenhorn. Burial followed in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

The family requests that any memorial contributions be made to the Methodist Retirement Home in Durham, N.C.

Information was provided by Williford-Barham Funeral Home.

Eddie Shaw

William Edward "Eddie" Shaw, 66, a native of Chowan County, died Sunday in a hospital.

A funeral was conducted at 2:30 P.M. Wednesday in Williford-Barham Funeral Chapel by the Rev. Thomas Biggs. Burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery.

He was a member of Edenton Baptist Church and an Army veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife, Pauline Cannady Shaw; two daughters, Emily Overton of Wilmington and Kate Freeman of Edenton; a son, Willie M. Shaw of Wilmington; a stepdaughter, Mrs.

Passion Play

Continued From Page 9-A
ing. As always, there is no admission charge.

Reservations for groups of 12 or more may be made by calling (919) 792-4977 or writing E. T. Taylor, Rural Route 1, Box 549, Williamston, N.C. 27892.

The church family of Piney Grove has extended a cordial invitation to the general public to attend any of the performances of this portion of the greatest story ever told.

Marion Evans of Elizabeth City; a stepson, Robert L. Lane of Peru, Ind.; a brother, Marvin Shaw of Edenton; four grandchildren; and five stepgrandchildren.

Mattie Brinkley

Mattie Parker Brinkley, 82, died Sunday in a hospital.

A funeral was held at 2:30 Wednesday in White Oak Baptist Church by the Rev. Robert Holloman. Burial was in Beaver Hill Cemetery, with Blair Funeral Service in charge.

A native of Chowan County, she was a member of White Oak Baptist Church and its choir. She was the widow of Charlie Brinkley.

Survivors include a son, Walter L. Holley of Richmond, Va., and a grandchild.

Harriet Wood

Harriet Palmer Wood, 81, died Monday in a hospital.

A graveside service was conducted at 11:30 A.M. Wednesday in Beaver Hill Cemetery by the Rev. Raymond Storie. Williford-Barham Funeral Home had charge.

The family assembled at the home of Mrs. Nelson Crandall, 120 W. Queen St. Memorial donations may be sent to St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

A native of Fayetteville, N.Y., she was the widow of Julien Wood. She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. N. Holmes Clare of New York City, Mrs. Nelson B. Crandall of Edenton and Harriett Palmer Wood of Morrisville, Vt.; four sons, Dr. Milton Oliver Kepler of San Fidel, N.M., Cady

Palmer Kepler of Fayetteville, N.Y., Julien Wood III of Taos, N.M., and Henry Palmer Wood of Bradenton, Fla.; 21 grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren.

Addie Martin

Mrs. Addie Everett Martin of Durham died March 5 at the Friendly Rest Home. Mrs. Martin was a native of Edenton.

Graveside services were held on March 5, with the Rev. Dr. F. Belton Joyner conducting the services. Burial followed at the Montlawn Memorial Park.

She was the daughter of Sarah Elizabeth Homreton and George Henry Everett. She was the wife of the deceased Joseph B. Martin.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. J. Clifton Rogers of Durham.

New President Elected To Post

RALEIGH—Mr. Kendall Hill of Tull Hill Farms, Kinston, N.C. was elected president of the North Carolina Yam Commission, Inc. for 1983. Edwin Beamon, Beamon Brothers, Goldsboro, N.C. was re-elected vice president and R. A. Edwards, R. A. Edwards Produce Co., Benson, N.C. was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The four directors elected to the twelve man Board of Directors for a three year term of office were: Carson Barnes, Spring Hope, N.C.; James Bardin, Wilson, N.C.; Billy Corbett, Wilmington, N.C.; and David Godwin, Dunn, N.C.

James Bardin, Wilson, N.C. was re-elected as the national director, representing North Carolina, on the Sweet Potato Council of the U.S., Inc. for 1983.

New Ducks Unlimited Chairman

William J. Bateman, Jr., a Raleigh, North Carolina, insurance executive, has been appointed as North Carolina State Chairman for Ducks Unlimited, the world's largest waterfowl conservation organization.

Edward L. Riddick

Reports To Duty

On March 9th, Marine Lance Corporal Edward L. Riddick, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Riddick, Rt. 2 Box 13, Edenton, has reported for duty at Camp Hanson in Okinawa Japan. Riddick, a graduate of John A. Holmes High School, joined the Marine Corp in 1981, and will be promoted to corporal upon arrival to Okinawa.

"Ducks Unlimited has been called a 'can-do' organization," said Whitesell, "because of its national network of conscientious volunteers. We are happy to

TOBACCO COURSE HELD—Joe Parrish, center, of Chowan County is one of 53 young tobacco farmers who attended a Tobacco Short Course conducted by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service with the assistance of a grant-in-aid from Philip Morris, USA. Mr. O. Witcher Dudley, III, Vice President, Leaf, Philip Morris, USA, (right) and Dr. Chester Black, Assoc. Dean and Director, N.C. Agricultural Extension Service (left) presented certificates to those who completed the four-day course. The group made an all-day bus trip to Richmond, Virginia, to visit the Philip Morris leaf processing, manufacturing, and research facilities. All other sessions were held at the McKimmon Center on the North Carolina State University Campus in Raleigh. The certificate is signed by Dr. Chester Black, Associate Dean and Director of the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service and Mike Williams, Chowan County Extension Chairman.

For constipation relief tomorrow reach for EX-LAX tonight.

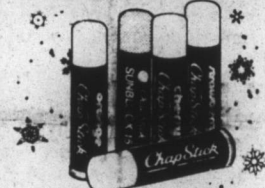

Ex-Lax helps restore your system's own natural rhythm overnight. Gently. Dependably. Try it tonight. You'll like the relief in the morning. Chocolated or pills, Ex-Lax is "The Overnight Wonder."

Read label and follow directions. © Ex-Lax, Inc., 1982

FOR SALE
1975 Datsun
Long-bed Pick-up
 4 Speed with 39,000 miles
 Good Condition
$2,500
 Call: 221-8325 after 6:00 P.M.

WINTER OVERCOAT.

Don't Go Out Without It. © 1983 A. H. Robins Consumer Products Division, Richmond, Virginia 23230

OPPORTUNITY RINGS

Every time you use the want Ads

It's like having a party line to all the buyers, sellers and services offered in the community! Put them to work for you. Just call one of our helpful "ad-visors" to place your ad. It's opportunity ringing!

The Chowan Herald

Call: 482-4419

YOUR LOCAL MERCHANTS CARE

- Your local merchant knows the needs of his community
- Your local merchant provides plenty of parking
- Your local merchant gives generously to fund drives
- Your local merchant stands behind his products
- Your local merchant helps support his and your community

Isn't it time you decided to stay home and shop in Edenton, N.C.