Wins Gold Award

Diversified Media Productions, an independent television production company in Greenville, N.C. was presented a Gold Addy Award for their television commercial for Speight Seed Farms of Winterville, N.C. The Gold Addy, in the Regional/National Category, was presented by the Eastern Carolina Advertising Federation, an affiliate of the American Advertising Federation. The commercial, using state of the art computer graphics, was produced by Janet Gaino; directed by David Balch; computer art by Charles Kesler. The original jingle was written by J.K. Loftin and sung by Charles Lahnn and produced by Richard Royall at Mega Sound Studios in Bailey, N.C. Having won the Gold, the commercial will now go on to compete against commercials from other parts of the country.

2ND PLACE IN DISTRICT—Raymond Potts is shown here displaying his second place plaque for his poster in the Conservation Poster Contest. Raymond has placed on a district level for three years.

Poster Winners

The Chowan County Conservation Poster Contest was held on Wednesday, February 23 at Swain Elementary School. This was the 30th year for the contest which is sponsored by the Chowan Board of Soil and Water Conservation District Supervisors.

This year, for the first time, the students were assigned a specific topic for the contest. They could prepare their poster on any idea relating to the topic of "Conservation of Soil and Water, Our Hope for the Future." The posters were judged based on the following points: How the conservation idea is presented, 50 points; originality, 25 points; artistic ability, 15 points; and neatness, 10 points.

Winners in this year's contest were: Fourth grade: first place - Adam Evans and second place - Tina Harris, both from Swain School; Fifth grade: first place - Cliff Harris and second place - Melissa Lawrence, both from Swain School; and Sixth grade: first place - Raymond Martin Potts, Chowan Junior High, and second place - Don Small, Swain School.

Cash prizes of $10 were presented to the first place winners and $5 to the second place winners. A $3 prize was also presented to room winners for those rooms not having a county winner. Robert Harrell, Chowan Conservation District Supervisor, made these presentations to each student.

The county first and second place winners competed with winners from Camden, Currituck, Pasquotank and Perquimans in the Albemarle District Poster contest held on March 3. Winning students from all five counties were honored guest at a luncheon sponsored by the Albemarle Electric Membership Corporation. Also attending the luncheon were parents, teachers and school officials, and conservation district supervisors.

Raymond Martin Potts from Chowan Junior High School won second place for the sixth grade in the District Contest.

The District Supervisors wish to express their appreciation to the students, school officials, and the Albemarle Electric Membership Corporation for making this contest possible.
