This will initiate wholesome activities such as character-building films, games, contests, arts, crafts, entertainment, etc." The first meeting of the youth club, "The Young Colonists," will be held on Saturday, April 9th at 4:00 P.M. Refreshments will be served. "Realizing the lack of activities is a country-wide problem, the church invites all school-aged youth to join the fun at the church, located on Colony Drive, one-half mile from the intersection of Colony Drive and Airport Road," states Pastor Yancey.

Backus' Gospel Songs On The Air

Adrian Backus, lawyer at Input Output Computer Services Inc., native Edentonian, was requested to sing two of his composed gospel songs on Boston's Channel 4 WBZ-TV. Mrs. Tanya Hart, star host of Boston's "Coming Together" T.V. program, found Backus' endeavor to aid the community via the proceeds of his records, a very impressive and needed project. Backus has joined with Mr. Alvin B. Downing Sr. of Edenton, also a local singer, to continue funding of this project. Backus appeared on WYCB's gospel radio station to inform that community of his endeavor to help their Senior citizen's feeding program. In Edenton a small scholarship distribution has taken place in local churches. Backus feels that every Edenton household should possess one of these keepsake recordings as a symbol of Edenton's inspiration on his desire to create and write music to help others. He quotes on behalf of Downing and himself, "We're not here to save the world, but only to do our part." This broadcast was viewed on Boston's T.V., Easter Sunday.

April Is Egg Month

Continued From Page 2-A poultry commodity in the state, it should be noted that North Carolina produced more turkeys than any other state in both 1981 and 1982. Yes, April 1983—Poultry and Egg Month, is a good time for both the consumer and the poultry industry to celebrate. The consumer can celebrate because poultry and eggs are one of the best bargains in the food market. The poultry industry can celebrate because they make a significant contribution to the economy of North Carolina while providing good poultry and egg products to the consumer.

The Gold Inlay

If you have cavity-worn or otherwise damaged teeth in the back of your mouth that must be restored, your dentist may recommend a cast gold inlay. Gold is more expensive than other kinds of filling material, such as silver amalgam, but it has many advantages. It's an ideal material to use when an abnormally large space between teeth should be filled. It's also one of the most durable filling material available. And it helps prevent the unsupported edges of the filling from fracturing. After removing the decayed part of the tooth, the dentist will take an impression of the cavity to be filled. Stone model will be fabricated, a casting will be made from gold and then the dentist will cement it into the tooth. With a few final touches the gold inlay is shaped to resemble the natural contours of the tooth. The dentist will also check your bite to make sure it will be comfortable and natural, adjusting the restoration accordingly. Then you can chew away to your heart's content. Most gold fillings last a "life-time".

Correctable Contact Problems

There are some people, not many, who continue to have difficulty wearing their contacts. Likely as not, they decide finally that they were just not made for them. The problem may have little to do with them on their contacts, but with external conditions. Living and/or working in dusty, windy conditions, or where smoke and fumes are found may cause discomfort while wearing contact lenses. If you experience this difficulty consult your eye specialist for instructions.

Excess glare may prove irritating to some eyes. This can be overcome by wearing sunglasses over the contact lenses while out-of-doors.

Such things as colds, hay fever and sinus trouble increase the sensitivity of the eyes, and may require the wearing schedule to be reduced.

If you are having any problems with your contact lenses — don't give up. It's probably correctible.
