May Day Plans Set

Not to be satisfied with last ear's outstanding event, the Chowan Arts Council members under the direction of Mary Ann Morris, is determined to make May Play Day, 1963 even better. The Rocky Hock Community Center has been chosen again as the site for the community arts festival, which will be held May 7.

Over 47 performances by professional and nonprofessional entertainers have been scheduled to run throughout the day on the indoor and out-door stage. In addition to the arts and crafts show and sale, the visual arts area will be expanded to include demonstrations by artists working with a variety of materials.

Very much at the heart of this arts festival is the belief that art is for everyone. Furthermore, the committee believes that art is fun and invites active participation, and active participation certainly will be the core of May Play Day activities for the children.

The Children's Corner, canopied in brightly colored cloth and decorated with balloons will lure children into Cardboard Village by way of the Tunnel-Totem Pole where they will be provided brush. paint and license to create their own architectural fantansies. The youngsters will also do some face painting, finger painting, and sand painting.

Filing Date Is Extended

GREENSBORO - This year, more than 50,00 North Carolinians will file their Federal tax returns after the April 15 deadline with permission from the Internal Revenue Service.

These taxpayers, unable to get everything together to send in on time, will request for an extension to file, Glen Jones, IRS public affairs officer, said. "The Congress has extended the extra time from 60 days to 120 days." he stated. "This means that a person requesting the extension will automatically have until August 15 in which to file the 1982 return."

Jones warned that the 120-day delay is for FILING the return, not for paying any File No. 82-SP-48 the return, not for paying any North Carolina Chowan County the extension should send in at least 80 per cent of the amount expected to be owed with the request for extension. That request is made on Form 4868, available in most libraries, some banks and post offices, and larger IRS offices throughout the state. The form can also be ordered by phoning 1-800-241-3860, tollfree; however, phone orders should be made as soon as possible to ensure delivery before April 15.

The request for extension must be postmarked by midnight, April 15 and sent to: Memphis IRS Center, Memphis, Tennessee 37501.

Persons who do not file on time, nor ask for the extension will be penalized on the unpaid tax balance at the rate of 5 per cent per month. The late pay penalty is one-half of 1 per cent per month, and the annual interest rate is 16 per cent, both on the unpaid balance.

Just for fun, the Chowan-Edenton Optimist Club will once again be providing free rides on the Optimist Club Train and directing a variety of games and contests.

The children's Corner is one of five areas of interest planned for May Play Day, 1983. Each area has been planned to introduce a wide variety of art forms, some old favorites and some less familiar; therefore, the arts festival will be educational. And like the Children's Corner, each area has been planned for fun; everyone can expect to have a good time,
