"Preservation Is Good Business" Workshop To Be Held May 19-20

The program agenda If you live in Edenton, Chowan County or the surrounding eastern N.C. Albemarle area, you won't want to miss a special workshop, "Preservation Is Good Business," scheduled for Thursday and Friday, May 19-20, in Edenton's Municipal Building. The workshop is designed to present information on rehabilitation of older buildings and historic preservation planning. Speakers will be on hand Friday to help with individual preservation projects, by answering questions, and offering advice to property owners. munity preservation. The workshop is co-sponsored by the Society, the N.C. Division of Archives and History, and the Edenton Woman's Club. Special assistance is provided by the Cupola House Association, a local preservation group responsible for the rescue of a significant local landmark.

"The Woman's Club has long been a leader in historic preservation in Edenton and Chowan County," according to Anne Greer, Society director. "We are pleased to be invited to do the May 19-20 presentation."

Cinco De Mayo Is Celebrated At Colonial Baptist

Sunday, May 15th, will be Cinco De Mayo Sunday at Col-onial Baptist Church, Colony Drive, Cape Colony. Cinco De Mayo (pronounced Sinko Day My-oh) actually is Spanish. This is the day that Mexico celebrates their independence from France.

During the war that led to that independence, two Mexican families sent their children from Mexico City to Texas for safety. One of the children was a young girl and the other a boy. The two of them later met in California and were married. After Yancey invites all who will to
