

Grants Win Approval

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Ratifying the idea that a modest portion of future increases in federal revenues from the extraction of publicly-owned offshore oil and gas resources should be allocated to coastal states for the continued sound management of, and research on, renewable ocean and coastal resources, the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee April 27 by a vote of 37-2, overwhelmingly approved and ordered reported H.R. 5, The Ocean and Coastal Resources Management and Development Block Grant Act.

H.R. 5, sponsored by the Chairman of the Committee, Walter B. Jones (D-N.C.) and the Chairman of the Subcommittee on Oceanography, Norman D'Amours (D-NH), would establish a fund derived from 10 per cent of the increase in oil and gas revenues during each fiscal year, over a base of Fiscal Year 1982, up to a ceiling of $300-million. These monies would be apportioned among the states — after up to 20 per cent of the fund has been appropriated to carry out the National Sea Grant College Program — on the basis of a formula which takes into account actual and future Outer Continental Shelf (OCS) leasing activity, the presence of coastal energy related facilities, and, for those states with approved Coastal Zone Management Programs, the length of their shoreline and their coastal population.

An amendment adopted during the Subcommittee mark-up on April 12, 1983, sponsored by the Chairman and Ranking Minority Members of the full committee and subcommittee, requires that a state pass through to local governments at least 35 per cent of its block grant. Eligible uses to which both the states and localities may put these funds are activities authorized by the Coastal Zone Management Act, activities authorized by the Coastal Energy Impact Program, and activities for the enhancement and management of living marine and natural resources.

During its consideration of H.R. 5, the committee approved by a voice vote, one amendment offered by Rep. Edwin Forsythe, the Ranking Minority Member, on behalf of Rep. Herbert Bateman (R-VA), which allows states which are making "satisfactory progress" toward the development of an approved CZM plan to take advantage of those provisions of the allocation formula reserved for states with already approved plans.

"Since 1981, when I first introduced the predecessor to H.R. 5, I have said that it makes little sense to vastly increase offshore leasing — which this Administration is doing — while at the same time terminating the management programs that allow our coastal states to deal with such an increase — which this Administration has proposed a bill virtually identical to H.R. 5 passed the House at the end of the last Congress by a nearly 2 to 1 margin. I am hopeful that when we get this bill to the Floor, as early as next month, that my colleagues will again respond to the simple logic of the legislation, which is that we cannot accelerate OCS development without the cooperation of the states, and federal assistance is the key to this cooperation. H.R. 5 provides a balance of federal control, state flexibility, and environmental protection, a balance appreciated by its 110 cosponsors and, I hope, by the entire House," said Chairman Jones.

Grain Production Declines

RALEIGH—Heavy enrollment in the regular acreage reduction and Payment-in-Kind (PIK) Programs means large cutbacks in 1983 crops.

Feed grain production will likely fall to the lowest levels since the mid-1970's, and wheat output could reach a four-year low.

Rice and cotton production will also decrease sharply.

Cattle numbers on January 1 declined about 400,000 head from a year earlier, abruptly halting the rise in the cattle cycle.

Hog producers had expanded their inventories faster than expected, but higher grain prices because of PIK may slow or halt production increases in 1984.

James L. Olson of the N.C. Crop and Livestock Reporting Services notes that concerns about weak crop prices, surplus stocks, and sluggish overseas markets are weighing heavily on farmers' plans this year. These uncertainties highlight the need for acreage and livestock information producers can rely on. Farmer cooperation, he adds, is the key to developing dependable estimates.

Representatives from Olson's staff will interview a cross section of farmers in late May and early June and mail questionnaires to others to gather data for the estimates. Similar surveys will be carried on in all states.

Final national and state estimates will be published by USDA's Crop Reporting Board. A report on 1983 Spring planted acres will be available on June 29, followed on July 12 with estimates of yield and production for several major crops.

Estimates of hog and pig numbers will be reported on June 22, and cattle numbers on July 21. For additional information about this survey or the resulting reports, contact the North Carolina Crop and Livestock Reporting Service, P.O. Box 27767, Raleigh, N.C. 27611, (919) 733-6244.

Aluminum Recycling

ROCKY MOUNT — With mild Spring weather just around the corner, N.C. Coastal Plains residents are beginning the annual Spring clean up of their homes and neighborhoods — and many are collecting all-aluminum cans and other aluminum products to recycle for cash.

The Reynolds Aluminum Recycling Company will purchase all-aluminum cans and other recyclable aluminum products directly from consumers at the following location in Northeastern North Carolina:

Ahokie, at Be-Lo Food Store (711 Memorial Drive), on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month, from 10 to 11:30 A.M.

In North Carolina, Reynolds pays a minimum of 20 cents per pound for all-aluminum beverage cans and other clean household aluminum products such as pie plates, foil, frozen food and dinner trays, dip, pudding and meat containers.

The Baltimore Oriole was named for Lord Baltimore, who governed the colony of Maryland, where the bird was first discovered. It is orange and black, the colors on Lord Baltimore's coat of arms.
