Mrs. Anderson Speaks On "It Is Never Too Late To Fall In Love"
"It is never too late to fall in love," will be Mrs. Vernon Anderson's theme Saturday night at 6:30 P.M. (May 7th) at Boswell's Restaurant in Edenton. As part of their emphasis on Marriage Encouragement the First Presbyterian Church, Edenton is holding this Dutch supper-choose from the menu-for any who would like to come. For reservations please call 482-4983.
Mrs. Anderson recently remarried at 83, after 33 years of widowhood. For 40 years she had her home open to local and international students. After her first husband's death she went to Zaire as a mother to Missionary children. Upon coming home after six years, she began taking in the "Mish" kids. Then foreign students. During World War II she had multitudes of young men from Georgia Tech many of whom entered the ministry. The Rev. and Mrs. H.E. Mallinson, pastor at First Presbyterian, Edenton met in her home. "Mama" Clapp, as she was known then, was mother to the bride and, or groom many times. She is a great matchmaker.
At the supper meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. Ernest "Sonny" Anglin from Newport News, Va. Sonny will M.C. the meeting. He is a compiler of Jokes, many of which have been printed in magazines. He works at N.A.S.A., Hampton, Va. He was instrumental in getting the tiles on the Columbia to stay fixed for its first flight. His wife, Betty, is an artist professor at Christopher Newport College. Both are originally from Georgia.
Mrs. Anderson will speak at the "Lunch Bunch" at J. A. Holmes High on Friday, May 6th. She will meet with the Adult Class at First Pres. Sunday, 10 A.M. She will speak to the congregation at 11 A.M. May 8th.

Marriage Is . . . Realistic
God. And if anyone objects to these two being joined let them NOW speak. Before getting to the altar the speaking should be done-by family, friends, clergy, enemies (!), but even at the altar it is possible to object-even the bride or groom! Don't do it-unless you are ready to commit yourselves to one another for better or worse! until death. That is realism.
But once the two have committed themselves to each other-then "Shut Up folks", and let them have a go at working out the better and worse as One. Let the Two become One until death part. Any "Amen's"?
