An element of marriage, so important and easily forgotten, is humor. Those who laugh together stay together. In laughter so often we bridge the gap that divides. We see our sins in a new light. We recognize our common sinfulness, humanity, finiteness. Who knows all the picture. Only God! Yet we in our proud pretensions think we can consign someone to hell. We play God with other lives "you ought . . . ", "you must ...", "you will or else ..." No
