

Couple United In Marriage

On May 14, 1983 Lynn Elizabeth Harris of Clinton, N.C. and William Everett Chesson of Edenton, N.C. were united in marriage in a 4 o'clock afternoon service at First Baptist Church in Clinton.

The Reverend William M. Jones officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown of white illusion over satin with a scalloped neckline appliqued with Chantilly lace and basque bodice. The pointed sleeves and back were fastened with satin covered buttons. Her full skirt was formed with panels of lace applique which extended the length of the cathedral train. Her full length veil of illusion was caught to a cloche of Chantilly lace trimmed with bridal wreath. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Following the nuptial vows, the bride and groom knelt on a white satin pillow made by the groom's maternal great-grandmother.

Wedding musicians included the pianist, Miss Julie Williard, Miss Susan Davis, both of Chapel Hill, N.C., and organist, Miss Jean Hatch, of Clinton.

The maid of honor, Miss Teresa Lynn Lanier, of Chapel Hill, wore a full-length skirt of pink linen with a white cotton top with spaghetti straps, and a white eyelet overblouse, belted at the waist with lavender ribbon. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers which included pink roses, variegated miniature carnations, Dutch iris, and statice.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Leah Davison and Miss Sheryl Leigh Thomas of Raleigh, N.C.; Mrs. C. Hayden McKenzie of High Point, N.C. and Mrs. Robert E. Durham of Atlanta, Ga. The bridesmaids wore the same style dresses as the maid of honor, and also carried mixed flowers.

Junior bridesmaids were Elizabeth Curran Chesson from Chapel Hill, N.C. and Meredith Marie Chesson from Raleigh, nieces of the bridegroom. They wore long dresses of white eyelet over pink lawn, and carried identical flowers.

The best man was the father of the groom, Wesley Merritt Chesson, Jr. The ushers included Mr. Wesley Merritt Chesson, III from Raleigh, Mr. Earl Goodwin Chesson from Chapel Hill, Mr. Arthur Robert Harris, Jr. from Clinton, and James Holmes Chesson from Edenton.

New Officers Are Elected

The Chowan County Democratic Women's Club held a reorganization meeting at a noon luncheon at Mrs. Boswell's Restaurant on March 11, 1983. Lane Kinion, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a list of new officers: President, Mary Partin; First Vice-President, Pansy Elliott; Second Vice-President, Helen Hollowell; Third Vice-President, Mary Horton; Secretary, Dorothy Graham; Treasurer, Hurley Winborne; Corresponding Secretary, Hettie Wallace. It was voted to accept the slate of officers by acclamation.

The club voted that, due to an increase in state dues, the local dues be raised from $1.00 to $2.00. It was also voted that three meetings a year be held with speakers, and additional called meetings if the executive board determines a need. The president appointed a committee to study the constitution and by-laws of the Edenton-Chowan group for possible revision.

what is low vision?

Low vision is the general term used to describe several levels of very limited sight which interferes with a person's daily routine activities.

One extreme of low vision is LEGAL BLINDNESS. Everyone has heard the expression, but not everyone knows what it means. Legal blindness is defined as visual acuity that cannot be corrected to better than 20/200 and/or a restricted field of vision less than 20 degrees. In the former instance, a person even with lenses cannot see at 20 feet what a person with normal vision can see at 200.

The majority category of low vision, however, consists of people who are PARTIALLY SIGHTED. This means that their visual acuity when corrected is between 20/70 and 20/200.

Low vision is often the result of injury, birth defects, aging, or disease. Many of the cases caused by disease can be prevented when its symptoms are detected early enough.
