Smart Singles Can Earn Big Tax Breaks

GREENSBORO—Single taxpayers who earn less than $3,000 a year or married taxpayers earning less than $5,400 a year and filing a joint return may be exempt from Federal withholding tax requirements, the Internal Revenue Service says. Many

North Carolina students working part-time may fall into this category.

There are two requirements for exemption from Federal withholding tax. First, the taxpayer must not have had a tax liability in 1982 and expects no tax liability for 1983.

Graduation

All area students are invited to a graduation service at Center Hill Baptist Church Sunday, May 29. The service theme is "The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner."
