Presbyterian Church News

The most radical claim ever made—"All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me," was made by Jesus after His resurrection. This claim for a Christian changes his whole relationship to his country, family, society and the world, and to God. This Sunday, July 3rd, the Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church will bring a message at the 11 A.M. Worship based on this passage of Scripture from Matthew 28:18.

At the Summer School at 10 A.M. Mrs. Dot Jennings will lead the study of the movie "E.T." and the Gospel themes in it.

Ashamed Of Your Smile?

If you're a friendly person but are afraid to give anyone a wide smile because you're ashamed of how your mouth looks, you may be giving people the wrong impression. They may think you're unfriendly or aloof because of your reluctance to give them a full smile.

Some people whose teeth are unattractive try to hide them by making hand motions near their face and mouth when they talk. Or they use their lips to help conceal their teeth. Some even turn slightly away from the person to whom they're talking. They're afraid to look them directly in the eye. They don't want to see the other person's reaction to unsightly teeth. This isn't necessary with today's dental techniques. A great deal can be done to improve the appearance of your mouth and teeth. Instead of hiding your teeth, you should make an appointment with your dentist to find out what he recommends to make them more attractive. Unsightly teeth can be capped to give them a healthy, natural look. Gaps can be filled and crooked teeth can be reshaped and realigned.
