Directors, although an effort was unsuccessfully made during the recent session of the legislature to give her a voice in the management and direction of the State's prison affairs. Statement by Superintendent Pou. In a statement issued today, Superintendent George Pou calls attention to the fact that the recent statements by Mrs. Kate Burr Johnson, commissioner of welfare, that whipping of prisoners was widespread among convict camps, had in mind only such camps as are main-whether the Ford is quite as old—but we do know that this couple are the oldest living father and daughter in existence.

tained by the counties and not camps maintained by the State Prison. Mr. Pou's statement follows:

"I want the citizens of North Carolina to know that I do not object to a full investigation of the treatment of all prisoners confined in the penitentiary. If anyone of these unfortunates has been subjected to inhuman treatment it has been without my knowledge and consent. Such treatment has not been reported to me by any citizen or by any prisoner.

"If it has been practiced, I want to know it, and I will put an end to it if I have the power. God knows I wish to see the hardships of all prisoners under my jurisdiction, reduced to a minimum. I have worked with this in view, and a majority of the prisoners will, I am sure, bear testimony to it.

"Can't Operate a Prison Without Discipline

"It is, however, absolutely essential to enforce discipline. No set of men can successfully manage more than 1,100 prisoners without requiring discipline. Often we get the blame when there is an escape, but we are doing our best, and above all, we have nothing to conceal.

"I have under my control 1,153 prisoners. These men are scattered over the State in eleven camps and two large farms. I give them the best supervision I can. Our camps have been visited by welfare officers

Firestone

Will Not Increase Prices on Solid and Pneumatic Truck Tires Until May 1st

Never has Firestone been so well situated to give operators the greatest measure of Cushion, Traction and Mileage at the lowest cost.

Today, economical manufacturing and distribution are showing the fullest results. Our favorable purchases of rubber, in advance of the 150% increase brought about by the British Crude Rubber Restriction Act, aid further in maintaining the old price levels.

Whatever the Truck Service—the Firestone Dealer Has the Right Tire

Firestone developments of the past two years have made pace for the industry and set new records in sure, economical performance. Five tires—the Heavy Duty Cushion, the Truck Type Cord, the Maxi-Cushion, the Giant Solid and the High Type—cover the needs of motor haulage in all its forms. Each has a distinct work which it does best. Each possesses a definite and special value for the operator.

Truck owners, using pneumatic tires, will find the answer to every demand of rapid, economical transportation in the Firestone Truck Type Cords with the tread that increases carrying capacity and improves traction, and the powerful gum-dipped carcass construction.

Let the Firestone Service Dealers Keep Your Trucks Moving

There are 800 Firestone Service Dealers, located in the principal trucking centers, fitted by natural ability and a thorough knowledge of trucking, to help you choose the right tire for your roads, loads and service.

Price Protection as Long as Stocks Last

Additional tires will be supplied to Service Dealers only so far as our present output will permit. Consult the nearest Firestone Service Dealer at once regarding your truck tire needs. He is in an advantageous position to give you an unusual tire—a specialized service—and prices which may not be duplicated in months.
