In Memorium.

Jesus visits every day
And take our precious ones away;
He has taken little Thomas, so sweet and small.
And some day, He'll call us all.

We saw not the angels that met him there,
We saw not the city so beautiful and fair,
Over the river, over the tide
Our darling is standing by His side.

Over the river, the fisherman's net
Carried our darling, the household pet.
We know he is safe on the further shore,
So let's not weep for him any more.

Mother, father, friends and all,
Let us heed the Savior's call,
And join our darling on the other shore,
Then we shall part—no nevermore!

Boiling Springs

The children's day here last Sunday went on in the Lord's name—a very nice time.

There is a revival meeting going on at this church with great success, conducted by the pastor and two other brothers.

Crops are looking good at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Poley Seabolt and family are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Leila Odell.

Everybody is cordially invited to attend the revival at this place.

Our school started on Monday of last week and we wish it good success.

We had a Sunday school celebration last Sunday. A very large crowd was present and all seemed to enjoy the day. Also a nice dinner was served on the ground.

Miss Della Woody of Marble was visiting friends here over the week-end.

Mr. A. B. Anderson, of Hooper Falls, spent the week-end at this place.

We are having a few days revival services at Boiling Springs, conducted by Rev. Clark and Rev. Rembre.
Mr. C. C. Mills is progressing nicely with his saw mill work.

Everybody had a good rain here Saturday.

Wonder what has become of the Owl Creek writer. We would like to hear from them again.
Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Miss Linda Tweed and Miss Emily Sword.
