Col. D. Witherspoon invited several of his friends to dine with him Tuesday evening at what turned out to be an elaborate birthday dinner. When the guests had arrived, they were escorted into the dining room, where each guest found at his place a cartoon of Jiggs in a special posture of mood, which supposedly characterized him. A delicious five course dinner was served by Mrs. Witherspoon, after which the guests retired to the sitting room where good natured conversation was indulged in for several hours, followed by music. It was Col. Witherspoon's forty-first birthday anniversary, and when the guests departed they wished him many happy returns, and declared that it was one of the most enjoyable evenings they had spent in a long while.

Letter From Woodbury To Mrs. Nettie Dickey

(We publish the following letter from Mr. W. H. Woodbury to Mrs. Nettie Dickey for the benefit of the many inquiring friends here of Mr. Woodbury.—Ed.)

Asheville, N. C., Mar. 7, 1924.

Dear Mrs. Dickey:
Am very glad to have your letter and appreciate the kind words and thoughts in regard to myself.

After spending the winter in a well heated room instead of in Florida, I am about ready to get back into harness. Of course, would have preferred Florida, but such was not the case and I had to take the best that was offered.

I hope to get home in a couple of weeks but it will be three or four weeks thereafter before I can leave town on account of the necessity of having dressings applied every day or two.

I must say that I have had many soliciting friends that I thought, for so many have kept up with me, for which I am very grateful.

Mrs. Woodbury has stood the trial very well, has been with me every day except three and two of them, was in bed herself.

Will be out to Murphy as early as possible as I know it is necessary, although from reports my business has gone on very well.

Hope you are well and that there are good reports from Mr. Dickey.

Remember me to Mrs. Griffith and all my friends who are staying with you.

With best wishes to your own good self,
Sincerely,
W. H. WOODBURY.

Mrs. J. J. Berryhill

Advice to Mothers

Charlotte, N. C.—"Motherhood left me in very poor health. I had a trouble that I could not seem to check. This caused me to be weak and nervous and I suffered with backaches and bearing pains. I went on suffering this way for about a year. I doctored and took medicine but nothing relieved me or gave me any help and I got so bad that I could scarcely get around. I was very weak and all in physically when I was advised to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took several bottles but consider it was well worth it for it completely relieved me of my weakness and made me feel once more that life was worth living."—Mrs. J. J. Berryhill, 1408 Seigel St.

ONCE IN ROYAL DAVID'S CITY.

By Anna Lou Dockery.

Once in Royal David's City,
Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her body
In a manger for his bed—
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.

He came down to earth from Heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his shelter was a stable,
And his shelter was a stable,
With the poor and mean and lowly
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

For he is our childhood's pattern,
Day by day, like us, He grew;
He was little, weak and helpless,
Tears and smiles, like us, he knew
And he felt for our sadness,
And he shared in our gladness.

And our eyes at last shall see Him,
Through His own redeeming love,
For that child, so dear and gentle,
Is our Lord in Heaven above,
And He leads His children on
To that place where He has gone.

Not in that poor, lowly stable,
With the Oxen standing by,
We shall see Him—but in Heaven,
At God's right hand on high
When, His crown, His children's Crowned,
All in white shall wait around.

Mustang Liniment in my yard for 24 years. My father, Dr. James Rize, who founded the Rize strain of Houdans, used it in his yards and always recommended it to the farmers. ## For All the Family

"WE have used Black-Draught ever since we have had a family and that was shortly after 1874," says Mr. E. A. Branstetter, of St. James, Mo. "It is my first remedy when any of us gets sick. . . . We use Black-Draught for torpid liver and stomach complaints.

"When I get sluggish and don't feel so good, I take Black-Draught—and you have to show me that there is a better medicine in Missouri. I think it is fine for indigestion or for headache. It is a splendid family remedy. My wife uses it for any stomach ailment, indigestion and biliousness. We never let the house be without it if I know it. We also give it to the children for children's complaints, colds or fever."

Keep a package of Black-Draught in the house for all the family.

Your dealer will sell you a mammoth package, containing five of the regular-size packages. It's cheaper.
