HIWASSEE.

Our Sunday school at Pleasant Hill is not progressing much on account of the measles.

The farmers are very busy trying to plant corn, but the rain hinders them a lot.

Elmer Taylor, son of Mr. Tom Taylor, happened to get snake bit the other day and he is very ill.

Mart Raper entertained a crowd with a singing last Saturday night.

Elmer Ledford moved from Ducktown, Tenn., on K. W. Shearer's place some few days past.

Miss Frances Burgess has been very sick with the measles, but is better at this writing.

Rev. Elisha Beavers passed thru our midst Saturday on his way to New Prospect to fill his regular appointment there.

Mr. K. W. Shearer celebrated his birthday May 4th, which was on Sunday. The guests were from Copper-hill, Tenn. Mrs. E. L. Amburn, W. S. Amburn, Miss Ruby Green, Miss Bonnie Shearer, Rev. G. W. Kilpatrick, O. E. Kilpatrick, and Laura Kilpatrick; from Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Ledford, Miss Gertie Ledford, and Masters Lester and Luke Ledford; from Hiwassee, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ledford and daughters Mildred Ledford. The guests were ushered into the dining room where a most delicious dinner was served, with cake and ice cream following. Mr. Shearer received many nice and useful presents.

Mr. Frank Davis and Mr. Isom Picklesimer passed through our section Sunday.

Mr. Gordon Williamson has left for Ohio.

Miss Ethel Davis, of New Prospect visited Mrs. Ben Rose recently.

Joe Walker and son, James, doing some fine saw milling and they have received their large bill.

MARTIN'S CREEK.

The young folks enjoyed a sing at Old Martin's Creek Saturday night.

Rev. Will Rogers preached an interesting sermon at the Baptist church here Sunday.

There will be a singing at the E. church Saturday night. Everybody is invited to come and be with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Asker Haney spent Sunday with Mr. and A. R. Stalcup. Miss Lilia Martin spent Saturday night with Miss Ida Chastain.

Everybody is invited to our Sunday school at the Methodist church

TRAFFIC

Knowledge, comfort, wealth, even safety, are dependent on the highways over which men go. Every increase in a road's usability is a fourfold benefit.

Today permanent highways have proved that they are both most usable and also ultimately cheapest. And the one material that makes this possible is Portland Cement, which, despite wide general demand, remains the cheapest of all manufactured products.

Atlas, through developing the rotary kiln, did more than anyone else to make Portland Cement actually cheaper today than thirty years ago. And in selecting the building material dealer as the only link between Atlas and user, assured distribution economy.

LIFE HISTORIES OF PRESIDENTS WILSON AND HARDING ARE MADE AVAILABLE

By special arrangement with the publishers and in an effort to be of service to its readers The Cherokee Scout is offering, at about one-third the publishers prices, the authentic lives of the late Presidents Woodrow Wilson and Warren G. Harding in connection with renewals and new subscriptions to The Scout.

"THE LIFE OF WOODROW WILSON," by Josephus Daniels, is just off the press. It is a volume of 381 pages, of large type, contains many pictures and illustrations, and is considered absolutely reliable and authentic. Mr. Daniels was a close friend of Mr. Wilson before the latter became President of the United States, and this intimacy as well as his close association with him as Secretary of the Navy, from 1913 to 1921, gives Mr. Daniels an understanding as perhaps few other men had. His book should be especially attractive to North Carolinians because he is a North Carolinian.

"THE LIFE OF WARREN G. HARDING," by Willis Fletcher Johnson, was published in 1923, and is a graphic history from the simple life of the farm to the glamor and power of the White House. Mr. Johnson is Professor of History of American Foreign Relations, New York University, and author of "The Life of Sherman," "America and the Great War for Humanity and Freedom," etc., etc. This is a large volume of nearly 300 pages, printed in large, clear type, with many beautiful illustrations, and contains an authentic record of the early life and struggles of the 29th President of the United States.

These books are selling at book stores for $2.50 each. They may be had for $1.00 each with yearly subscriptions to The Cherokee Scout, either new or renewal, or for $1.10 with each six months subscription to The Scout, either new or renewal. These are standard works. You will want them for yourselves and children. DO NOT DELAY! Samples of the books may be seen at this office.
