Lyceum Entertainers Who Will Appear Nov 19th

THE FARNUM TRIO

Miss Doris Farnum, who heads the Farnum Trio, is well known to Lyceum audiences everywhere. Miss Farnum possesses a contralto voice of rich quality. Her presentations of the folk songs of Ireland to her own accompaniment on the Irish harp are a notable part of the Trio's program. Another feature of her work is her miscellaneous readings consisting of cuttings from popular plays. She is also conspicuously successful in humorous pianologs and monologs, given in Scotch, Italian, Swedish and English dialects. Geoffrey Waddington, violinist with the Trio, is a talented young Canadian who studied under Ferdinand Fillion of Toronto. He has won a number of medals and cups in musical festivals, and scored eminent successes throughout the Dominion of Canada. Another member, Miss Evelyn Dalin, soprano, pianist and violinist, has many Lyceum successes to her credit and completes an ensemble whose programs of wide diversity and real entertainment are popularly acclaimed.

SECOND NUMBER LYCEUM COURSE HERE NOV. 19TH

Versatile Farnum Trio, Well Known Musical Organization, Coming Next Wednesday

The second number of the lyceum course will be here next Wednesday evening at the school auditorium at 7:45 o'clock. This is a well known musical organization and the wide variety of selections they will offer will please every hearer.

The company is composed of Doris Farnum, Geoffrey Waddington, and Evelyn Dalin. Miss Farnum is a contralto, reader, pianist and harpist; Mr. Waddington is a violinist, and Miss Dalin is a soprano, pianist and violinist.

Miss Farnum possesses a contralto voice of rich quality. Her presentations of the folk songs of Ireland to her own accompaniment on the Irish harp are a delightful part of the Trio's program. Another feature of her work is her miscellaneous readings, consisting of cuttings from such popular plays as "Hog o' My Thumb," and "Mr. Antonio." Humorous pianologs and monologs, given in Scotch, Italian, Swedish and English dialects further attest her versatility in the entertainment field.

Geoffrey Waddington, violinist with the Trio, is a talented young Canadian who studied under Ferdinand Fillion, of Toronto. He has won a number of medals and cups of musical festivals, and scored eminent successes throughout the Dominion of Canada. He possesses rare artistry, based upon a nicety of phrasing and a keen depth of feeling.

Another member, Evelyn Dalin, soprano, pianist and violinist, has many lyceum successes to her credit and completes an ensemble whose program of wide diversity and real entertainment or popularly acclaimed. Miss Dalin was here a year ago and Murphy people will be delighted with her return.

Michael Schenck Appointed Judge To Succeed J. Bis Ray

Michael Schenck, of Hendersonville was on last Thursday appointed to the Superior Court bench to succeed the late Judge J. Bis Ray.

Judge Schenck thought of coming to Murphy this week to hold court but at a meeting of the local bar association on last Saturday, it was determined not to attempt to hold court as it would be practically impossible to prepare the cases and get any witnesses here. Accordingly the judge wired a complete postponement of the court.

Judge Schenck is a native of Lincolnton. He is a former solicitor of the 19th judicial district and was judge advocate general in the army. He is widely known in the state.

Senate Floor Leader Died Sunday Night

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (of Massachusetts, Republican floor leader of the United States Senate for years, died Sunday night at a quarter past eleven o'clock at the Charles Gate Hospital at Cambridge. The direct cause of his death was a stroke of paralysis, suffered on Wednesday November 5th, just as he was recovering from a second operation within the past few months. The stroke left him unconscious except for a few brief moments on Friday, when he rallied.

On July 27th, just following the national convention, Mr. Lodge underwent the first operation, a second followed in October and the Senator was planning to be in readiness to take his seat in the Senate when the session convenes in December when the stroke came.

He was 74 years old and was one of the most verile figures in American politics. He had both scholar and statesman. He had served in the Senate for thirty one years. He was a leader in the majority part in the Senate and his place will be hard to fill. Simple funeral services were held for the Senator on Tuesday.

Local Chapter Red Cross Re-Organized

Plans were completed here early this week for the renewing of the local chapter of the American Red Cross. The week of November 17th to 22nd inclusive, has been selected as the week using which the drive for memberships will be put on. Miss Nell Whaley, who has charge of the field work of the Red Cross organization in this section, spent several days here conferring with the local committee preparatory to the drive for memberships.

The Junior Red Cross chapter has been complete. It is composed of the children in the local schools, about five hundred in number. Mrs. L. P. Kinsey has been chosen as the chairman of the junior organization, which will be interested in community projects of various kinds. Its motto is "I Serve." Each school child has been given a Red Cross badge and each school grade receives the Red Cross Monthly Magazine, containing suggestions appropriate for the season of the year.

Mr. Don Witherspoon has been selected as chairman of the Senior Red Cross organization that is to be completed next week. Other officers were named as follows: Vice-chairman, J. B. Storey; Secretary, Miss Martha Candler; Treasurer, Walter W. Hyde; Public Information, B. W. Sipe.

Memberships are one dollar each. Funds derived from this source are distributed as follows: Fifty percent will go to national headquarters for national disaster and fifty percent will be kept at home to further com-

Official Returns Show Clay County Republican By Quite Safe Majority

Willing Workers to Send Boxes To County Home

The Willing Worker, the class of girls and young women in the Murphy Methodist Sunday school, are planning to prepare gift boxes for the inmates of the county home for Thanksgiving.

The class plans to prepare a box for each individual and deliver them in person. While visiting the home, they plan to render some music and it is expected that Rev. D. H. Rhinehart will talk to them. The details will be worked out as the Thanksgiving season approaches.

Charles Clegg Wins Debate At Young Harris

In a recent debate between the two literary societies, at Young Harris College, Charles Clegg and Thomas J. Rogers, of the affirmative of the question, Resolved: That Alexander Hamilton's, Plans of Government were higher than Thomas Jefferson's, won the decision over James Lilly and Sam Wells, defending the negative of the same question. Mr. Clegg is a senior in the high school department of Young Harris College. He spent the week-end in Murphy.

Robertson Given Majority Of 666 In 33rd Senatorial Dist.

Bible Class Holds At M. E. Church

About one hundred members of the Murphy Men's Bible Class and their friends enjoyed a delightful banquet in the serving room of the Methodist church last Friday evening. The ladies of the Missionary Society prepared and served a sumptuous dinner for the occasion.

President J. H. Hampton, of the Class, acted as toastmaster and introduced the speakers for the occasion. Dr. J. A. Sharp was the principal speaker and was heard with much pleasure. Others speaking were the pastors, D. H. Rhinehart, of the Methodist, T. L. Sasser of the Baptist, and E. G. Clary of the Presbyterian, churches, and Mr. R. R. Beal of the class.

This was the third annual banquet of the class. The following is the teacher's honor roll, signifying that each teacher named below was neither tardy or absent during the month and that all reports were in at the specified time: Mr. Carroll, Miss Fain, Mrs. Hoover, Mrs. Bell, Miss Wright, Miss Triplett.
