In Memory

A letter of condolence on Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Mills little son, Christopher's death.

Our Dear Friends: If anything could have caused us special pain it was the news of your sad bereavement. How we remember your dear child, lovely, lively, intelligent, and affectionate, ever displaying a heartfulness beyond his years, and to lose such a promising child truly brings a deep and heavy shadow. We remember that light something will be a blessing, and there will be a glad and happy reunion in the great beyond.

It has indeed been a heavy blow, and we sincerely hope that the Lord will comfort you in your affliction, but may of God's mercy give you and his loved ones the children. He has prepared a bright and beautiful home beyond the grave, and the spirit of the dear child will only wait until he meets his dear mother and father to part no more.

We can try to move. Human consolation is weak. May God bless you in your hour of sorrow, in the wish of your loving friends. A FRIEND.

GOLDEN RULE DAY TO AID NEAR EAST

Five Million Dollars Needed for Refugees Orphans Under American Care.

23 NATIONS JOIN OBSERVANCE

State and County Committees Organized to Insure Success of Nation-Wide Campaign.

By CHARLES V. VICKREY
General Secretary of the Near East Relief.

With the cooperation of civic and religious leaders throughout the United States, the Near East Relief has inaugurated its campaign for the second observance of International Golden Rule Sunday on December 7. The aim is to raise funds to provide during the coming year for 100,000 orphan children under American care in little homes. More than five million dollars is the minimum needed.

The national Golden Rule committee was organized several months ago, under the chairmanship of Cleveland H. DeLoach, the well known philanthropist. An executive council is under the chairmanship of John H. Fisher, formerly commissioner of Education of New York State and now president of a New York college. State and county committees are being organized throughout the United States to insure success of the nationwide campaign.

Each year on one day each year in honor of the Golden Rule is a golden opportunity to help the international life of an American citizen which has been made a duty by the Golden Rule.

Mr. John Dink has bought out the coffee house of Mrs. Bryant. It will be remembered that Dave killed a Mr. Adams about one year ago and was sentenced to term in to 20 years for the crime, but his case is now pending in the supreme court where he appealed it. He is under a strict bond.

On the day - December 7 - Americans are asked to eat a dinner of soup, bread and milk, or of corn grits and condensed milk, or of rice, macaroni and corn. As they eat this dinner they are asked to remember that those who are in the Near East are in need of food and money.

Those who eat the Golden Rule dinner will not lack distinguished company. Such a meal will be served on Sunday in the homes of kings, prime ministers and presidents.

The Golden Rule is a universal creed. It is a common denominator of all religious and social welfare organizations. It is a test of our religion and our sincerity. Golden Rule Sunday is a day for personal stock-taking, for measuring our lives by a universally accepted standard of life to ascertain how nearly we have attained to an ideal. It is a day of plain living and high thinking.

The dinner, however, is not an end in itself. It is an occasion, in the words of President Coolidge, "for bringing to the minds of those who are prosperous the charitable requirements of those who are in adversity."

On Golden Rule Sunday the citizens of all nations will be seated fraternally at the same table, partaking literally of the same food, thinking the same thoughts and entering into a new realization of the brotherhood of mankind.

There are 23 nations that have joined in the observance of Golden Rule Sunday. They are: Armenia, Belgium, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Japan, Korea, Lithuania, Poland, Rumania, Serbia, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, United States, and Yugoslavia.
