Christmas Shoppers Are Asked to Mail Packages Early

Washington, D. C., Dec. 2.—Last year, through the generous co-operation of the press, the movies and other advertising mediums, Christmas mailers were induced to dispatch their Yuletide presents earlier in the month than ever before in the history of the institution of gift exchanging in the holiday season.

As a result, the spectacle of the last minute rush of former years with its attendant heartbreaking labor on the part of wearied and nerve worn store clerks and postal employees, was avoided.

This year Postmaster General New and First Assistant Postmaster General John H. Bartlett have determined to make an even better record and to banish for all time the suffering undergone in past years by those engaged in the sale or transportation of gifts. They hope to make "Shop Early" a habit with the American people.

Mailing early does not mean December 1 or before, but if everyone could get their holiday tokens in the mail between December 10 and December 20, the post office could not ask more.

Particular attention this year will be paid to greeting cards. Despite the success last year it was noted that the last-minute mail consisted largely of cards. Possibly many of them were returned greetings to friends, heard from on a previous mail, but overlooked on the original Christmas list. Unlike parcels and letters containing money orders, cards, of course, can not well be marked "Do not open until Christmas." Therefore, it is possible that the many mailers hold them until the last to insure delivery on Christmas eve. This class of mailers this year, however, may find their cards undelivered until after Christmas day.

Believing that the energies of postal employes should not be sapped to the last degree for any avoidable reason, and, intent upon securing for them the same Christmas privileges enjoyed by others, Postmaster General New asks the hearty co-operation of the public. The last-minute, or zero hour has been moved up so that all postal employes may eat their Christmas dinners at home. Rural carriers will deliver no mail at all on Christmas day and clerks and carriers in the city offices will stop work promptly at noon.

PEACHTREE OBSERVES THANKSGIVING DAY

The Peachtree community observed Thanksgiving at the Baptist Church which was well attended. The people were most interestingly entertained by the pupils of the Peachtree high school with a well rendered program. Mr. H. B. Elliott called for prayer service from volunteers. Fourteen responded readily in thanks to God, ten of this number having never prayed in public. This is the fruits of the Sunday school and an active B. Y. P. U.

AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Dr. F. Rauschenberg, of Biltmore, will preach at the Presbyterian Church at 11:00 o'clock Sunday morning. All Presbyterians and others will have a treat in his message. E. G. CLARY, Pastor.

WOLF CREEK.

Among the prominent visitors in our section Sunday from Isabella, were Mrs. George Hawley, Mr. Clyde Harris and sister, Miss Lena; from Copperhill, Mrs. Virginia Fincher and son, Hobart, with Mrs. Harriet Fortner, from White Oak, Ga.

There was more motoring through our section Sunday than in many months before, in one day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hancock were pleased to welcome a baby boy to their home last Thursday night.

Mr. Riley Morgan and family visited relatives at Belltown Sunday.

Forest fires still continue to rage in our section.

Mr. R. E. Crabtree left here on Thursday for an educational convention at Candler, N. C. He is expected to return Tuesday.

There is a lot of excitement over the declaration of a stock law line running along the top of the mountains east of this community. There is likely to be some litigation over the matter.

Mr. W. H. Amburn plans on moving into his new home this week.

There is and has been a general epidemic of colds throughout our section.

Thanksgiving passed off quietly with but a few services held throughout our section. One noticeable feature about it was, there was not so much non-resident hunting and forest fire started as usual.

Plan To Open Tea Room Soon

Murphy is to have a tea room. Misses Elizabeth Brittain and Kathryn Thompson are the proprietresses. It will be located over the Hardware Store of Brittain and Mayfield. The formal opening will be held on Tuesday, December 9th, at which time it is planned to serve free lunches to the public.

OGREETA.

(Last Week's Letter) The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hall, who has been very sick, is improving.

W. P. Odom, of Murphy, spent the week-end with home folks.

Rev. W. D. Hogsed filled his regular appointment at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lillie Johnson is on the sick list.

Mrs. Fred Hall and baby are visiting their mother, Mrs. Sarah Johnson.

TAKE YOUR CHPRCH PAPER

It has been said of Dr. George W. Truett that it was from the Baptist papers of his father's reading table that he got a knowledge of Baptist life, which has ever had a charm for him; and it was from these papers that he acquired a love for literature, which habit has made him one of the most widely read men of today. It was from these papers that he caught glimpses of the expanding Kingdom of God and felt the impulse to be in the ranks.

Parents, how can you serve your children better, or render a better service to your church and your God than by getting your children to read good literature, especially to read the publications of your own church press. XMAS MONEY FOR YOU

Search Your Attic for Confederate Envelopes.

This is a new and easy way to get Xmas money without trouble or work or expense.

Among the old letters of many Southern families are hundreds of very rare stamps and envelopes. Many have been found and sold for small fortunes. Single envelopes have been sold for as high as $700.00. Many have brought upwards of $50.00 each. It sounds "fishy," but it's true. They are valuable because they are rare. They are rare, not because there are only a few, for there are many of them, but simply because most of them are forgotten, being stored away in old trunks and closets.

Make a thorough search through your attic for these old war letters. Fortunes in rare stamps have been found in old letters which no one ever dreamed contained anything of value. Many an old trunk or chest contains letters that may bring the finder a profitable reward. Send these to Mr. Harold C. Brooks, Box 223 Marshall, Michigan, and he will immediately write you, stating whether they are of value and, if so, will offer you full value for them. He is a private collector of rare stamps and envelopes and will pay more for those he is seeking than a dealer. Besides the Confederate issues, certain United States and foreign stamps are wanted provided they are on the original envelopes and mailed between 1845 and 1870. Although the rare issues are especially desired he also buys many of the commoner kinds, and many people are in this way getting Christmas money with but very little trouble and no expense.

The Advertising Manager of this paper has known of Mr. Brooks for many years and you may place fullest confidence in his integrity. He will advise you frankly, offering what he regards the envelopes as worth to him and in case the envelopes are not satisfactory they will be returned to the sender.

As so many stamps are similar in appearance, Mr. Brooks cannot quote values from written descriptions, but must see the envelopes. Furthermore, the condition of a stamp or envelope has an important bearing on its value. Confederate money, old documents or coins he does not collect.

If envelopes are sent in a bunch they should be very carefully wrapped—if possible between cardboard to protect them from becoming wrinkled or creased. Do not cut the stamps from the envelopes, but send the complete envelopes. Also take care not to tear the stamps or put pins through them. Such damage greatly reduces the value of any stamp. If you have reason to believe your envelopes contain any of great value send them by Registered Mail.

This notice will not be printed again, so make a thorough search now before the address is lost or forgotten. Tell your friends or ask permission to look over their old war letters. Many elderly people have kept hundreds of such letters. Mr. Brooks' address is as follows: HAROLD C. BROOKS, Box 223 Marshall, Michigan.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of gripe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomet tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomet, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.
