

Mrs. Dickey Receives Letter From Bermuda

Mrs. Nettie Dickey is in receipt of the following letter from Col. T. S. Robbins, a prominent lawyer, of Asheville, who is now on a vacation in Bermuda, which will be of interest and information to his friends and clients in this section. The letter follows:

St. Georges, Bermuda, Dec. 18, 1924.
Dear Mrs. Dickey:

No doubt you will be surprised to see that I am in Bermuda. Decided to come here with Mrs. Robbins for a little vacation. It is a glorious place. Went surf bathing yesterday with a lot of pretty girls and am going again today. Plenty to drink here and its pure, but we can't bring any back with us to the United States.

I will be out to court some time next month and will tell you more about this country.

Wishing you a Merry Xmas and a happy and prosperous new year, I am

Sincerely,
THOMAS S. ROBBINS.

DAILY STRENGTH

Nature has admirably fitted the body to fight against weakness but there is need for a daily renewal of strength, which comes easiest through nourishment.

Scott's Emulsion

is a practical aid to health and strength. If you are pale, underweight or weak, Scott's is the restorative that builds you up Nature's way—through nourishment.

OUR RESOLUTIONS

By Willie K. Johnson.

While I am fully aware of the fact that the custom of making resolutions at New Year originated among the superstitious people I do not detest the idea of resolving at this special time to do something beneficial, uplifting, noble and grand.

I wonder how many of us have resolved to make the year 1925 the busiest year of our life, have resolved during this year to make the very best better.

I am a young girl about nineteen year of age, and while I do not object in the least to any person, young or old, reading what I have to say, I am speaking particularly to the boys and girls of my own age. Knowing as I do that though we are boys and girls today we'll be the men and women of tomorrow; and knowing also that the great responsibility of carrying on the work of our community, of our county, of our state, of our nation, is soon going to be shifted on our shoulders, I am going to offer some resolutions that I think would be profitable for each of us to make.

Since our country would have gone to wreck and ruin were it not for the men and women who have put their trust in the "Babe of Bethlehem" and have lived pure, clean, straight lives and since it will take the same kind of people to make our grand old nation thrive in the future, I am going to offer this as the first resolution for those who know not Christ to make:

Resolve to seek Christ until you find him and when you have found him to deny yourself, take up your cross and follow him. And to those of us who profess to be Christians I would say: Live your religion at home, at church, at school, in the woods, in the street, anywhere you chance to be, and since it takes scholarly men and women to carry on the big business of the world, I should think it would be worth while to make a resolution to gain an education. That has been preached and sung in my home from the time I was a little girl and my father took me upon his knee and told stories of great Americans to his little American daughter from the time I was a little tot and was spanked roundly and scolded for doing things I should not and for not doing things I should have done until the present day. I declare unto you that song was begun way back then and is ringing in my ears now. I am passing the song on to you. Through this paper I am telling the boys and girls of Cherokee what I wish them to do—what I wish them to be.

Editor The Scout:

I am 67 years old and I never had a key turned on me until in the afternoon of last August the 8th and I must say that from that date until the present time, December 22nd, I have witnessed more heart rendering scenes than in all of my previous life put together; but thank the Great Giver, I have gone through it all, with kindness shown me on every hand by officials and every one with whom I have come in contact. Even now I hear the groans of an old man just my age in a cell near me. I have a cozy room and an area of about two acres to move about in. Several have been allowed the same privilege but have had to be locked up again for one cause or another.

Dear Editor, bear in mind that I am in Asheville jail serving a sentence. I was sentenced to the Cherokee County jail and assigned to the Buncombe County roads but haven't struck a lick on the road inasmuch as the good officials of Buncombe County did not see fit to work me on the road. I naturally fall back to the Cherokee County jail, but I have just gotten word that the good Commissioners of Cherokee County have agreed to take me back to Murphy to finish my sentence. I understand from the officials here that they are expecting 65 cents per day for keeping me. So it will not increase the expense of Cherokee County for me to go back to Murphy to finish my sentence.

Now, Dear Commissioners, I will be glad if you will kindly arrange for me to go back to where I can see my precious family occasionally, from whom I was so unjustly banished.

"If Your Pain Is There, What You Need Is a Good Tonic For the Kidneys"

The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating and the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized and include such symptoms as lumbago, backache, depression, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy.

People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim of uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for Anuric (anti uric acid) and you will very soon become one of hundreds who have been freed by this powerful enemy to
