Fat Man's Corner

Artist Schram—I have decided to present my latest work to some charitable institution. Which do you suggest?

Friend Roller—The Asylum for the Blind.

Gladys—He's so romantic. Whenever he speaks to me he always says: "Fair Lady."

Edward—Oh, that's a force of habit. He used to be a street car conductor.—Yellow Crab.

Newed—What's wrong with the pie crust? It doesn't half cover the pie.

Mrs. Newed—why, dearest, I asked your mother how to make them to suit you and she said to make the crust very short.—Boston Transcript.

Albertson—I told my wife that if she bobbed her hair I would leave her Gold—But she bobbed it; and you're still living with her?

Albertson—You bet I am. I'll show her she can't bluff me.—Houston Post-Dispatch.

"Now," began the scenario writer, timidly, "I'd like actors in my picture who can behave like ladies and gentlemen."

"No, sir!" snored the director. "It would never get by the censors!"—Legion Weekly.

Westerner—You say you found a rattlesnake in bed with you this morning? Why didn't you kill it?

Easterner—I didn't pay much attention to it. I thought I was just seeing it!—Legion Weekly.

Maid—I hope, ma'am, that you're not superstitious?

Mistress—Not a bit, Mary. Why?

Maid—I hope, ma'am, that your cause I've broke the largest mirror in the hall.—London Humorist.

Davis—How's the fishing in this lake?

Keber—The best possible. I never saw anyone else in the world do as much fishing as they do here, in proportion to the fish they catch.—Wilson Every Evening.

Joany—Why did you quit working for that memory expert?

Willie (a baseball fan)—'Cause he remembered that all my grandmothers died last year.—Legion Weekly.

Old John, custodian of the bathhouse at a famous resort, was in the habit of entering Miss Augusta's compartment before she had completely re clothed herself.

One morning she said to him: "John you ought to knock before you come in. Some day you might come in while I was undressed."

To which honest old John replied: "Lor' bless you, miss! no danger of that. I alius peeks through the knot-hole afore I comes in."—Dayton Journal.

Prospective Employer—Put can you get up in the morning?

Maid Applicant—Can I? Why, in my last place, I used to be up and have all the beds made before anyone else was up.—Lawton Times.

Miss Davis (to applicant for servant)—And why did you leave Mr. Seaton's employ?

Marie—Well, it was like this: he came downstairs the other mornin' and began to hunt high and low under sofas, chairs and tables for the east wind and a couple of dragons, and, Miss Davis, I'm not going to work for no fanatic.

She had kept the salesman busy for nearly two hours and had not bought a thing. Finally she said pompously, "Well, I must go now. I see my car at the curb."

"Just a minute, madame," said the salesman, "and I'll unroll a strip of carpet across the sidewalk."—Boston Transcript.

Distracted Wife (at bedside of sick husband)—Is there no hope, doctor?
Doctor—I don't know, madam. Tell me first what you are hoping for.—Lord Jeff.

State S. S. Convention To Meet In Greensboro April 28, 28 and 30

On April 28, 29, and 30, Greensboro is to be host to a large number of Sunday School workers from all parts of the State, representing all evangelical denominations, who will be in attendance upon the annual convention of the North Carolina Sunday School Association. The committee in charge of the arrangements are of the opinion that this will be the biggest and best Sunday School Convention held in the State in recent years. Through the Greensboro Committee on Arrangements, it has been announced that free lodging and breakfast will be furnished all delegates to the Convention.

Greensboro's part in arranging for the Convention is in the hands of the following Committee on Arrangements:

The BULL'S EYE

Editor and General Manager WILL ROGERS

Another 'Bull' Durham advertisement by Will Rogers, Zigfield Folles and screen star, and leading American humorist. More coming. Watch for them.

THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION A LA CARTE

Order Any Amendment You Want

THEY are trying to pass an amendment to keep children from working. Now children didn't want to work, but they got tired waiting for somebody else to do it. If they would just put through an amendment to MAKE grown people all work, there would be no need to have this children one. Grown people stopped working without an Amendment or even a reason, so it will take more than an Amendment to start them. It will take a Miracle.

They are going to pass another Prohibition Amendment, somebody mislaid the rules of the other one. The 19th amendment made Women vote, some amendments make us do something and some keep us from it. No. 21 will give men with Knee Breeches the vote. About the 25th Amendment will prohibit smoking and when they do, 'Bull' Durham will bootleg for a dollar a sack. (I knew I would get that Ad worked in there somewhere.)

Will Rogers

P. S. I'm going to write some more pieces that will appear in this paper. Keep looking for them.

MORE OF EVERYTHING for a lot less money. That's the net of this 'Bull' Durham proposition. More flavor—more enjoyment and a lot more money left in the bankroll at the end of a week's smoking.

TWO BAGS for 15 cents
100 cigarettes for 15 cents

ments, appointed some weeks ago at a meeting of pastors, superintendents and other Sunday School leaders in that City. General Chairman, O. E. Lee, Director of Education, First Baptist Church; Chairman Entertainment Committee, E. D. Yost, General Secretary Y. M. C. A.; Chairman Local Publicity Committee, F. E. Myrick, Superintendent First Christian Sunday School; Christain Finance Committee, A. C. Davis, Superintendent West Market Street Methodist Sunday School; Chairman Hall Committee, H. C. Marley, of the First Baptist Church.

The Program Committee have announced that the program has been planned with the view of making it possible for all Sunday School teachers and officers to get practical help for their work. There will be general sessions each morning and evening, when topics of interest to all Sunday School workers all be discussed. The Afternoon session will be devoted to special departmental conferences which will deal with the problems of all departments of the modern Sunday School.

Speaking in the general convention session, and in charge of the different departmental conferences, will be the following out-of-state Sunday School specialists: Miss Meme Brockway, Philadelphia, Pa, Director of Children's Work for the Northern Baptist Church; D. Percy R. Hayward, Chicago, Ill., Young People's Division Superintendent International Council of Religious Education; Charles Darcie, St. Louis, Mo., Adult Division Superintendent

Stop That Bachache!

Many Murphy Folks Have Found the Way

Is a dull, nerve-racking bachache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Thousands recommend Doan's. Read what a resident of this locality says:

W. A. Brown, 13 Wootrow St., Asheville, N. C., says: "When I bent over, sharp pains shot through my back, and mornings, I was lame and sore. I had dizzy spells and, too, my kidneys were weak and out of order and the secretions pained in passage. After using Doan's Pills, I was entirely cured." (Statement given April 20, 1918.)

On January 11, 1922, Mr. Brown said: "I have had no need to use Doan's since they cured me."

PERSIMMON CREEK

A large crowd attended services at this place Sunday and Rev. J. P. Decker preached an interesting sermon for us.

Mr. S. D. Stiles spent the weekend with Mr. T. G. Stiles.

Mrs. Olive Davis and children have returned from Georgia where they spent several days with her son, William Davis.

Our Sunday School will begin the first Sunday in April. Let us all attend and try to make this one of the best Sunday Schools that we have ever had at Persimmon.

There was quite a large crowd attended the prayer services at Bro. J. H. Crisp's home last Sunday night. We feel that the Lord was with us for He has said that where two or three are gathered together in His name He would be there also to bless and we must carry on the good works of our Savior. Prayer services will be held at Bro. Lawson Simond's home the fourth Sunday night. Everybody is invited to come and take part.

Mr. Glen Crisp was a visitor at this place Sunday.

Misses Hattie Mashburn and Vera Johnson were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Williamson were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Simonds.

Mr. Clifford Johnson spent Sunday with Mr. Houldrem Payne.

Stop Night Coughing This Simple Way

People who have persistent, annoying coughing spells at night and who through loss of valuable sleep are weakening their systems and laying themselves open to dangerous infections, can stop their distressing trouble promptly by a very simple treatment. Hundreds who have hardly been able to rest at all for coughing, have gotten their full night's sleep the very first time they tried it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is that you usually sleep as soundly as a babe the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's croup and spasmodic croup—no harmful drug, medicinal, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. It is on sale at all good druggists. Ask for
