Hayesville Talent Renders Good Program Tues. Night
Quite a delightful program of readings, piarclogues, and a little play were rendered at the school house Tuesday evening by several Hayesville girls. Miss Jessie Mae Adkins, a graduate in expression from the Hayesville High School was the principal member of the party. Her readings were splendid. Miss Marjorie Passmore accompanied Miss Adkins in the piarclogues and also sang beautifully with Miss Ball, one of the teachers in the Hayesville School. Miss Ball appeared in several vocal duets and took a leading part in the two-character play. While the audience was small, yet it was appreciative. The girls acquitted themselves well.

IN HONOR OF J. C. POINDESTER
By Mrs. Frank Hembree
We loved him, yes we loved him,
But angels loved him more,
And they have sweetly called him
To yonder shining shore.

The golden gates were opened
A gentle voice said come,
And with farewells unspoken
He calmly entered home.

Beauty and Health

MRS. BEULAH WALL

Gastonia, N. C.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the best tonic and nerve that I have ever taken and I would never hesitate to recommend it to any woman who is ailing or nervous. I was weak and nervous after my first baby came, would have dizzy spells and headaches. I also had functional disturbances but after I started taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription my system became regulated and then my pains and aches disappeared. I took several bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was just as well and strong as a woman could wish to be."—Mrs. Beulah Wall, 103 S. Ransom St.
