Penetrates Through the Skin Clear to the Bone

Liniment Called Mexican Mustang has Strange Power

A lame back, a strained muscle or aching joints will stop paining and become limber and natural if you will apply a little of that old-fashioned liniment known as Mexican Mustang. Druggists and other authorities agree that its great power to relieve pain is due to its magical penetrating action—it goes through the outer layers of the skin without burning or a trace of blister, right to the sore spot. It is not like the smearing, stinging, burning mixture usually known as liniments. No matter if all other outside applications have failed, you will not be disappointed with Mexican Mustang Liniment—it also heals cuts, burns and sores and so makes a valuable remedy to have in the home at all times. All druggists and wholesalers sell Mustang Liniment or can get it for you.

Friends of Mr. Walter Mauney, druggist of Parker Drug Company, will be glad to learn that he is fast recovering from his recent operation at the local hospital.

Mrs. C. K. Hoover and Miss Kathryn Thompson entertained with a Halloween party at Backwood Camp on Saturday night of last week. The guests were received by two ghosts who escorted them through the grounds which were rendered more ghostly by the dim lights of the oblique Jack-o'-lanterns. The guests then entered the building where they were received by Mrs. Hoover and Miss Thompson, the latter presenting them with appropriate caps and hats. The guests then gathered informally around a big open fire place where short tales were told, chestnuts roasted and old fashioned songs were sung. Some of the guests vied with each other in eating apples suspended from strings from the rafters, while others played bridge in one of the ante-rooms. Refreshments were served late in the evening consisting of a salad course, with cakes and hot coffee. Afterwards favors were passed around which were designed especially for noise-making. The guests departed shortly before twelve, agreeing unanimously that a good time was had by all. Those invited were: Misses Elizabeth Smith, Martha R. Smith, Mary Alice Smith, Luciea Triplett, Annie Wilson, Anna Howard, Eva Nell Mauney, Nan Dixon, Carole Ferguson, Lynn Albright, Winifred Montony, Mrs. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davidson, Dr. and Mrs. Edward E. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Spurge Christopher, Messrs. Leath Howell, R. L. Harris, James Ferguson, B. W. Sipe, C. K. Hoover, Robert Brown and Chip Abbeard.

How Doctors Treat Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bed-time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are left free with a hearty appetite for breakfast.

Get a family pack, containing full directions, only 35 cents. At any drug store. (13)
