WOLF CREEK

The dry weather is certainly hitting our section in a way that vegetation is showing it in a very marked manner.

Mr. William Ballew, of Ducktown, visited friends and relatives here Monday.

Several of our people attended the all-day singing at New Prospect Church, near Coles Crossing, Sunday. The Chestnut Blight or the drought of last summer, combined with the drought now prevailing, is killing a majority of our chestnut trees.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cook and family with Mr. and Mrs. George Ledford and family motored to Chattanooga and back Sunday.

Mr. John Cook has traded for a grain separator and is serving the community in a splendid way by threshing out the grain of all who haul it to his place. There has been no separator here for three or four years, so the grain industry had found a low level.

Walter Ledford, who was charged with breaking into Center & Abernathy's store in Copper Hill, and removing automobile casings etc., was carried to Benton, Tenn., the early part of last week and placed in jail for safe keeping.

The Sunday Schools of our section are a dead issue. There are four Baptist Churches in one mile of this place, with hundreds of young people as well as many old ones, who need to know more of the Bible and its teachings, but not a Sunday School at either one of them. This condition will not have to exist very long until we will need a Missionary.

POSTELL

Rev. G. W. Sparks from Marysville, Tenn., and Rev. E. A. Beaver from Suit, N. C., began a revival at Shoal Creek Church Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mason visited their daughter, Mrs. Pirley Elrod and family at Ducktown, Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewie Stiles are all smiles over their new baby boy.

Mrs. Ed Dockery and little daughter, Marie have been very sick for the past few days.

Miss Notie Allen and brother Arvel visited their aunt, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Saturday night.

Loyd, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dockery has been on the sick list for a week.

Mrs. R. P. Allen and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. John Parker one day last week.

Messrs. Hedden Stiles and Loyd Crowder visited John Mason and family Sunday.

Mr. Lush Craig spent Saturday night with his cousin, Clifford Swanson.

Misses Ida and Deelia Swanson spent Sunday with Miss Eliza Allen.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Craig and children spent Thursday with Mr. Boon Beaver and family.

The dry weather has damaged crops a lot in our section and it still continues to stay dry.
