Mrs. Melindy West

Mother and sister Melindy West was born in Wilkes County, N. C., July 11, 1836. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nichols. She came to Cherokee County many years ago. She was known far and near by the name of grandma, her friends were every one near her. She professed faith in Christ in her young days and joined the Baptist Church. She has belonged to Read Marble Church from the first of its existence and has filled a Pilgrimage for many years. Sister West was once married, her husband was David West, the mother survived the husband and two children, eight children still living yet, and being left a widow she lived on her old home place. Up until about two years of her death she stayed with her granddaughter, Hattie Rogers where she and her children, Charlie, John, Cali, George, Waldern and Luther West and Sisey Derrebery with the aid of kind friends administered to her until death. Death came to her July 28, 1926 at the ripe old age of 90 years, 17 days. Burial took place at the Reed Marble cemetery, funeral services were conducted by Rev. Butler Matheson on Thursday July 29.

With many thanks for kind friends, we remain, Signed by the children.

In Memory Of Our Dear Mother

On July 5th, 1926 the death Angel visited the home of our sister, Hester Roberts, and called away our dear mother, Margret M. King. She leaves a husband, Julius M. King, of Greenback, Tenn., and five children besides a host of friends to mourn her loss; Arcenia J. Eller, of Farmer, Tenn.; John L. King, of Murphy, N. C.; James A. King, of Alto, Ga.; Martie S. King, of Gastonia, N. C.; Hester R. Roberts, of Greenback, Tenn.; Brother Rev. Elick A. Shook, Hightower, Ga.; Martha A. Baker, of Letitia, N. C. Names of son-in-laws and daughter-in-laws: William S. Roberts, of Greenback, Tenn. and Elisha Eller, of Farmer, Tenn.; Cordia King, of Murphy, N. C.; Ollie King, of Alto, Ga.; Sarah J. King, of Gastonia, N. C. Our mother lived here on this earth for seventy-six years one month and five days. She lived to see all her children grown and married. Her death was so sudden that none of the children were present at her death, only Hester Roberts, with whom she was staying at her death. The father and mother was just making their home among their children. She was a kind and loving mother. She professed her hope in Christ at the early age of 16 years and joined the Baptist Church. She was always faithful to her church duties as long as she was able, she always met her friends with a lovely smile, always good and kind to all her friends, but she has gone home to live with Jesus till the resurrection day. I know that some day we will meet her in a better world than this if we live up to our duty to our Master Jesus.

Farewell dear mother, soon we will meet again where partings will come no more. So let our mind and feet be careful, Where they carry us to, Just anything for Jesus, Just only let me do. Blessed are the dead which die for Jesus ye henceforth saith the spirit, they rest from their labors and their works do follow them.

Her suffering was great during her sickness but she is at rest in the Kingdom where Angels do dwell. Farewell dear mother here on earth, but some sweet day after while we hope to meet you again. So good-bye for just a short while.

My mother is waiting for me above, Where sorrow can never more come And I shall soon see her dear smiles of love,

In that beautiful Heavenly Home. She left me alone in this world below, And went to the Savior up there, Again I shall see her some day I know,

In a land that is free from care. My life is so lonely without her here, My trials are harder to bear, For all of my sorrows she used to share

My faithful, kind mother so dear, But Glory will come to me by and by, When mothers dear face I shall see In Heaven, that country beyond the sky,

And forever with her I shall be. Written by J. L. King.
