

Fords climb hills better with this new oil

Road tests prove it

ROAD tests over approximately a thousand mile course with dozens of Fords, both passenger and truck, proved that the new "Standard" Motor Oil makes Fords climb hills better; gives from 10% to 20% increase in gas mileage and a reduction in oil consumption of 12% to 40%; affords better lubrication at all times, with a cooler motor, smoother operation at all speeds and little or no carbon accumulation; relieves gripping bands.

Test the new "Standard" Motor Oil yourself. Verify these results in your own car. Just get your crank-case filled at any "Standard" Service Station or dealer. Then expect results. You can actually feel the difference.

THIRST IS LIKE FIRE ALARM, SAY HEALTH EXPERTS

Warns You When Moisture in Your Body is Running Low in All Seasons

Experts on physiology will tell you that your body is more than three-quarters moisture and that as you exercise, ever so mildly, the moisture is used up in producing energy. That accounts for the constant necessity for replacing the used moisture, our health guardians tell us. Thirst, like a fire alarm, is nature's agency for notifying us that we need a drink to replace this moisture.

Coca-Cola precipitated discussion of this natural phenomenon with the slogan, "Thirst Knows No Season." And science concurs. Drinking is essential—next in importance to breathing. The immense popularity of Coca-Cola as the agency to fill this natural need is due to the fact that it is so refreshing. Coca-Cola sales, which have reached 7,000,000 a day, have repeatedly proved that thirst knows no season.

"During the year 1925 the sales of Coca-Cola in Montreal, Canada—the home of winter—were approximately 12 million bottles; while Miami, Florida—the all-year-round summer playground—they amounted to 9 million bottles," says C. K. Hoover, manager of the Murphy, N. C., Coca-Cola Bottling Company. "And the same story can be told of hundreds of cities in between where the popularity of Coca-Cola continues through all four seasons. It's the story of the tremendous public demand for the right product."—Advt.
