

Society

Woe unto him, who is faint hearted is hope that gives the real perfume of life.

I have learned the length, breadth, depth and height of that ugly word endure.

O, ask me not "how shall I bear burden of tomorrow" sufficient for today it's care, it's evil, it's sorrow.

We must not blame people for their inability to understand when there is nothing in their experience with which to interpret.

In quietness and in confidence shall your strength.

Mr. C. E. Gartrell of Richmond, Va., has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wofford and Mr and Mrs.
Paul Hyatt.

Mr. W. Christopher was in Atlanta on business, first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lee arrived Saturday by motor for a visit with Mrs.
Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W.
Sandler.

Mrs. W. A. Savage and Mr. E. A. Savage left Thursday for Cornelia, Ga., to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. S.
Benton. After which Mr. Savage, accompanied by Mrs. Benton will go to Tampa, Fla., to attend the Confederate Veterans Reunion.

Why this fuss that couples park cars in which to sit and spark?
Old styles surries in the dell could be hugged in pretty well; and no doubt the prairie schooners often held a pair of spooners.
Why condemn the modern setting?
It's the same old kind of petting.

the daughter of a Japanese, that's "Miss Cherryblossom", tonight at the school auditorium.

Miss Julia McCombs and Mr. Forrest Wells were quietly married Sunday, March 20, by Rev. Noble at Bellview.

Miss McCombs is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McCombs of Peachtree. Mr. Wells is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Wells of Tomotla.

The marriage united two of Chero-kee's oldest and most prominent families.
The young couple will live at Tomotla.

perhill Tuesday and was accompanied home by her little grand son, Bobby Barclay, who will remain with her during the absence of Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Barclay who are attending a convention of the Kiwanis Club at Memphis.

The beautiful Amaryllis, in the window of the Cherokee Bank, expressing in its fragrant loveliness the spirit of Eastertide, was grown by Mrs. E. A. Davidson.

Don't forget "Miss Cherryblos-som" at the school auditorium tonight, at 7:30.

The ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society entertained with a Silver Tea Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage. A musical program was rendered by Mrs. E. S. Miller, Mrs.
S. S. Christopher and Mrs. Norma
Hyatt

Refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, wafers and coffee were served.

A very good sum was realized considering the inclemency of the weather.

Why not a clean up campaign for Murphy?

Tourist travel has begun, the summer visitor will soon be here. Let's put our best foot forward to receive them.

No. 10 Highway is a trunk line with Murphy an even break between Asheville and Atlanta, and as such will entertain numbers of tourists over night.

We have very little in the way of amusements to offer. Something must be done to compete with Waynesville and Hendersonville with their Golf Courses and ball rooms. Last summer the vacant lots around town were nothing short of fly blown garbage dumps.

We can at least be clean and cleanliness like charity begins at home.

The senior class of the Murphy High School is planning to go to Atlanta next week to witness the presentations of Shakespear's Julius Caesar. They will be chaperoned by Mrs. Nora Cobb White.

The Super-Six principle freed to the limit now admittedly excels any development thus far known. There is nothing with which to compare it in performance, stamina, safety and economy of operation.

Its seven beautiful new bodies share with its brilliant performance in the greatest reception of all Hudson history.
