Editor The Scout:

Our citizens have been asking for several weeks what is keeping the State from working on the proposed highway from Murphy to the Angelico Gap? I see from The Scout that Mr. Stikeleather lays all the blame on our County Commissioners. If he has pointed out a mistake to them and they have righted it, then good. If they have not done so, then I am sure all the citizens of this County would like to know why.

Mr. Stikeleather says that as soon as the money is turned over to the State by the County Commissioners the State will let the contract and begin work at once. Now, if this project does not start at once, and our County Commissioners do not defend themselves, by denying Mr. Stikeleather's charge, then a citizenship already overburdened with a rising tide of taxation, scarcely thought of before, may well ask if there is not a "dead Nigger in the woodpile?" We anxiously await results.

IN MEMORIUM

In the passing of little Aster Tilson the only child of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tilson our neighborhood has been saddened, our deepest sympathy go out to the bereaved parents and we long to say a word to comfort them.

Aster was a child of high ideals, always searching among many books for something new, and on any subject was well informed for a child of his age. His greatest pleasure was to read a new book. His quiet and studious nature arrested the attention of all who knew him. He was well liked and to know him was to love him.

We cannot understand why he was taken, but God knew best and doeth all things well.

"Now to these sternly-featured hills Look gently on his grave, And quiet now the depths of air

As sea without a wave.

"That deeper lies the heart of peace, In quiet more profound; The heart of quietness is there, Within that churchyard bound.

"And from all agony of mind It keeps him safe, and far From fear, and grief, and from all need Of care or worldly sorrow."

—A NEIGHBOR.
